3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

“Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting ‘under color’ of law for purposes of § 1983 actions.”
— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27

The Court further held that the judge’s immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff’s HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff’s legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand.

Dismissal of Plaintiff’s § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights

- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten's Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman's admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

Respectfully submitted,

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT
BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
  3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;

Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

Lucio Celli,
Plaintiff,

v.

AG et al,

Defendants.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge's immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten's Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman's admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

OTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics

Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
  - 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
  - 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
  - Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
  2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
  3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
  4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
  5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
  3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;

- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge's immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by

Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten's Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman's admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

Lucio Celli,
Plaintiff,

v.

AG et al,
Defendants.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIV ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

“Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting ‘under color’ of law for purposes of § 1983 actions.”

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff’s HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff’s legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff’s § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;

- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten's Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman's admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent

her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

Respectfully submitted,

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
  3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge's immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman's admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
  3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge's immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman's admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
  3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
  - 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
  - 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
  - Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;

2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

Respectfully submitted,

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT
BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
  2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
  3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
  4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
  - Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
  - Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIV ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

As Schumer and Weingarten --as part of the holy trinity of public corruption with Gillibrand--should have been terminated

Besides this, the issue is tenure, penis picture, IEP violation, ed smoking weed, and MOSTLY a threat on our democracy...as case law supports Schumer and Weingarten as they tell the world and do the opposite

You know what else Schumer said is a threat on our democracy--being denied of every single right to a fair trial

The evil holy trinity is a threat on our public institutions and what they accused Trump of and they are temping to conceal the facts ....Justice Kavagauh did not get this luxury ...nor should Schumer, Gilliland and Weingarten

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment

- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi's interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten's Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman's admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

04/15/2025	84	ORDER denying 51 Motion; denying 52 Motion to Intervene; denying 53 Motion for Writ of Mandamus. This order addresses three subjects. 1. The Court has repeatedly warned Plaintiff that he may face sanctions, including dismissal of his case, for sending vexatious emails to judges of this court and court staff. See, e.g., Dkt. 23, 33, 64. Plaintiff has continued to defy those orders and warnings. Since the most recent order and warning on February 28, 2025, Plaintiff has sent 91 such emails (filled with rants and many with profanity). In total, he has sent 147 such emails since February 6, 2025, many to an email list of over 400 addressees. The Court again directs Plaintiff to communicate with the Court solely through the Pro Se Office and to cease sending emails to any other Court staff, Court chambers, and any party, or employee, officer, or director of any party, to this case. If Plaintiff fails to comply, the Court will issue an order to show cause why the case should not be dismissed for repeated failures to comply with court orders. 2. Defendant UFT filed its motion to dismiss as scheduled on April 14, 2025. (See Dkt. 82.) Plaintiff is reminded that his opposition is due by May 14, 2025. 3. On February 23, 2025, Plaintiff filed three motions. The first (Dkt. 51), essentially asks the Court to exercise jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims concerning his criminal conviction in a previous legal proceeding. As other courts have held, his civil claims are not the proper forum in which to challenge his conviction (which, in any event, was affirmed on appeal). See, e.g., Celli v. Engelmayer, No. 22-CV-4646, 2023 WL 2666876, at *1 (E.D.N.Y. Mar. 28, 2023); Celli v. Perez, No. 22-CV-2353, 2022 WL 922779, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 29, 2022). Accordingly, the motion is DENIED. The second, a "motion for the Court to intervene on the fact Defendants' (the City & the UFT) wrongful denial of prescription coverage," addresses subject matter and relief already encompassed within Plaintiff's claims (Dkt. 52). Accordingly, the motion is DENIED. The third (Dkt. 53), a motion for mandamus relief directed at matters and persons concerning his criminal conviction, is DENIED for the same reasons as the first motion. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motions at Dkt. 51, 52, and 53. SO ORDERED. Copies transmitted this date to all counsel of record. The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff and note service on the docket. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 4/15/2025) (mml) (Entered: 04/15/2025)

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;

Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT
BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;

4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIV ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

The Court further held that the judge’s immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer’s well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;

- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT
BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),<sup>**</sup> held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi

Weingarten and associated private parties;
 2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
 3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer’s well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;

2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT
BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
  3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge's immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman's admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Dearest Dishonorable Engelmayer:

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, Livingston, AUSA Durham, and AUSA Smith;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.
5. Engelmayer took a bribe to cover up Randi's involvement and to treat me like an animal who has no rights because Randi can buy any judicial decision that she wants because she is the king maker
6. Engelmayer helped Randi obtain employment decisions in pension, wages and etc over a penis pic and he is a petty little man who retaliates because Randi bribed Wolfe and Livingston

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;

2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff’s access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

Everyone knows that there were no probable cause, they have evidence of Randi bribing judges, and prevents the facts of Randi Weingarten's criminal involvement in my case, like Wolfe's criminal conduct of switching transcript and Engelmayer covering up his conspiracy with Randi, COgna and Kellman—there are audios that DOJ has so no excuses and they need to be sanctioned

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
  2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
  3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
  4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
  5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucio Celli

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
  2. Wolfe took bribed to switch transcripts, steal 20k from parents, she and had her clerks cover the fact that I was denied every single right and over up over a illegal
  3. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
  4. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
  5. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff’s rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman’s communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff’s case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten’s role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as “things of value” under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);

Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

---

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV

on a public blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took money with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of their obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

Subject: perez --letter to the president and congress about your crimes for Randi

Date: Thursday, April 17, 2025 4:15:31 PM

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

even Wolfe said it is criminal ...i said misconduct

I have to pay for the filing fee in jersey and I am requesting national disbarment for you ...I think it can only be in jersey though ...but I will try ...Wolfe's own statements of you help me

The Honorable Donald J. Trump
45th President of the United States
Office of Donald J. Trump
Palm Beach, Florida

The Honorable Marjorie Taylor Greene
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

I will add others too

Subject: Request for Immediate Removal and Federal Investigation of Clerk Wolfe and Judicial Officers for Obstruction, Transcript Fraud, Medical Retaliation, and Political Protection of Randi Weingarten — with Additional Judicial Bias by Judge Lehrburger

Dear President Trump and Representative Greene:

This letter expands on my prior submissions requesting the removal of Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and related judicial officers due to deliberate obstruction, retaliation, and judicial fraud committed to protect Randi Weingarten, a politically shielded union boss. This letter now additionally includes new evidence of discriminatory conduct by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose actions have further endangered my life, violated the Constitution, and emboldened what can only be described as a federally sanctioned protection racket for political allies.

Expanded Allegations Against Clerk Wolfe

As previously detailed, Clerk Wolfe engaged in the following misconduct:

- Obstructed my access to HIV medication, causing irreversible HIV drug resistance;
- Concealed evidence of fabricated detentions and transcript alterations coordinated with Judge Cogan and Judge Engelmayer;
- Suppressed my filings and communications when I exposed these unlawful acts;
- Cited past judges' criminal conduct as examples, while simultaneously committing the same types of criminal acts herself.

Wolfe impeded the misconduct complaint of Perez that she dubbed as criminal for Perez and DA Dubeck will not answer whether the committee received it or not, after Wolfe lied that she is the one, and only one, who handle misconduct compalint

Wolfe loves engaging in mail and wire fraud because she loves that cash money from Randi

These actions are supported by transcripts, emails, audio recordings, and medical documentation and constitute criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505, 1509, 1512, and constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Discriminatory Misconduct by Judge Robert Lehrburger

I must now report the deeply disturbing conduct of Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose open and hostile bias toward LGBTQ individuals living with HIV has materially harmed me and is further disqualifying him from judicial service.

Specifically:

- Judge Lehrburger has repeatedly minimized or ignored my medically urgent filings related to my lack of access to life-sustaining HIV medication.
- He has characterized my legally valid and constitutionally protected motions as “vexatious”, a label he has never applied to those in similar positions unless they are LGBTQ or critical of the federal judiciary.
- More troublingly, Judge Lehrburger has expressed a belief—through statements made in and around the court—that HIV is a “gay illness” and that deaths from HIV are “justified.” This conduct violates not only the Constitution but basic human decency.

His refusal to address the denial of life-saving medication is not an accident—it is rooted in prejudice, enabled by his political alignment with those protecting Randi Weingarten. By calling my pleas for medical treatment “vexatious,” Judge Lehrburger is attempting to justify medical neglect through a personal and political vendetta.

This conduct constitutes a direct violation of:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – conspiracy to oppress and injure rights under color of law;
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act protections related to disability-based discrimination;
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges — particularly the duty to be impartial and refrain from bias or appearance thereof.

Analysis Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

As previously outlined, the actions of Wolfe, Cogan, Engelmayer, and Lehrburger align squarely with the legal analysis in Kelly v. United States, where the Supreme Court found that government power used deceptively for political retaliation or private agenda violates the constitutional purpose of public office.

Like the officials in Kelly, these judicial actors and clerks:

- Fabricated and manipulated official processes (transcripts, detentions, medication access);
- Did so not for a “public purpose,” but for retaliatory and political reasons;
- Abused authority to protect Randi Weingarten, a political ally whose conduct would otherwise result in criminal referral and removal from office.

Formal Requests for Immediate Action

In light of these facts, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate removal proceedings against Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and Judge Robert Lehrburger;
2. Congressional inquiry and criminal investigation into the denial of medical access, fabrication of detentions, transcript tampering, and retaliation;
3. Referral for impeachment and disciplinary review of all judicial officers involved in suppressing enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's order;
4. Public exposure and policy response to protect against judicial bias and politically motivated denial of healthcare.

Plus, Lehuburger doesnt mind 10k in cash to render a decision of her choice because he is a fag hater and love cash money like Wolfe

This is a human rights crisis facilitated by federal courts. I am willing and prepared to provide:

- Audio evidence of obstruction and bribery;
- Transcripts showing perjury and tampering;
- Medical documentation of HIV resistance caused by these acts;
- Emails and filings submitted to Wolfe, Livingston, and Engelmayer.

I ask for your voice in ending this systemic abuse and restoring justice to a system that has allowed political connections to outweigh constitutional rights—and endangered lives in the process.

Respectfully and urgently,

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

Respectfully submitted,

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIV ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

“Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting ‘under color’ of law for purposes of § 1983 actions.”

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff’s HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff’s legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff’s § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Besides this, the issue is tenure, penis picture, IEP violation, ed smoking weed, and MOSTLY a threat on our democracy...as case law supports Schumer and Weingarten as they tell the world and do the opposite

You know what else Schumer said is a threat on our democracy--being denied of every single right to a fair trial

The evil holy trinity is a threat on our public institutions and what they accused Trump of and they are temping to conceal the facts .....Justice Kavagauh did not get this luxury ...nor should Schumer, Gilliland and Weingarten

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention

- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer’s well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

Subject: Request for Immediate Removal and Federal Investigation of Clerk Wolfe and Judicial Officers for Obstruction, Transcript Fraud, Medical Retaliation, and Political Protection of Randi Weingarten — with Additional Judicial Bias by Judge Lehrburger

Dear President Trump and Representative Greene:

This letter expands on my prior submissions requesting the removal of Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and related judicial officers due to deliberate obstruction, retaliation, and judicial fraud committed to protect Randi Weingarten, a politically shielded union boss. This letter now additionally includes new evidence of discriminatory conduct by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose actions have further endangered my life, violated the Constitution, and emboldened what can only be described as a federally sanctioned protection racket for political allies.

Expanded Allegations Against Clerk Wolfe

As previously detailed, Clerk Wolfe engaged in the following misconduct:

- Obstructed my access to HIV medication, causing irreversible HIV drug resistance;
- Concealed evidence of fabricated detentions and transcript alterations coordinated with Judge Cogan and Judge Engelmayer;
- Suppressed my filings and communications when I exposed these unlawful acts;
- Cited past judges' criminal conduct as examples, while simultaneously committing the same types of criminal acts herself.

Wolfe impeded the misconduct complaint of Perez that she dubbed as criminal for Perez and DA Dubeck will not answer whether the committee received it or not, after Wolfe lied that she is the one, and only one, who handle misconduct compalint

Wolfe loves engaging in mail and wire fraud because she loves that cash money from Randi

These actions are supported by transcripts, emails, audio recordings, and medical documentation and constitute criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505, 1509, 1512, and constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Discriminatory Misconduct by Judge Robert Lehrburger

I must now report the deeply disturbing conduct of Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose open and hostile bias toward LGBTQ individuals living with HIV has materially harmed me and is further disqualifying him from judicial service.

Specifically:

- Judge Lehrburger has repeatedly minimized or ignored my medically urgent filings related to my lack of access to life-sustaining HIV medication.
- He has characterized my legally valid and constitutionally protected motions as “vexatious”, a label he has never applied to those in similar positions unless they are LGBTQ or critical of the federal judiciary.
- More troublingly, Judge Lehrburger has expressed a belief—through statements made in and around the court—that HIV is a “gay illness” and that deaths from HIV are “justified.” This conduct violates not only the Constitution but basic human decency.

His refusal to address the denial of life-saving medication is not an accident—it is rooted in prejudice, enabled by his political alignment with those protecting Randi Weingarten. By calling my pleas for medical treatment “vexatious,” Judge Lehrburger is attempting to justify medical neglect through a personal and political vendetta.

This conduct constitutes a direct violation of:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – conspiracy to oppress and injure rights under color of law;
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act protections related to disability-based discrimination;
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges — particularly the duty to be impartial and refrain from bias or appearance thereof.

Analysis Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

As previously outlined, the actions of Wolfe, Cogan, Engelmayer, and Lehrburger align squarely with the legal analysis in Kelly v. United States, where the Supreme Court found that government power used deceptively for political retaliation or private agenda violates the constitutional purpose of public office.

Like the officials in Kelly, these judicial actors and clerks:

- Fabricated and manipulated official processes (transcripts, detentions, medication access);
- Did so not for a “public purpose,” but for retaliatory and political reasons;
- Abused authority to protect Randi Weingarten, a political ally whose conduct would otherwise result in criminal referral and removal from office.

Formal Requests for Immediate Action

In light of these facts, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate removal proceedings against Clerk Catherine O’Hagan Wolfe and Judge Robert Lehrburger;

2. Congressional inquiry and criminal investigation into the denial of medical access, fabrication of detentions, transcript tampering, and retaliation;
3. Referral for impeachment and disciplinary review of all judicial officers involved in suppressing enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's order;
4. Public exposure and policy response to protect against judicial bias and politically motivated denial of healthcare.

Plus, Lehuburger doesnt mind 10k in cash to render a decision of her choice because he is a fag hater and love cash money like Wolfe

This is a human rights crisis facilitated by federal courts. I am willing and prepared to provide:

- Audio evidence of obstruction and bribery;
- Transcripts showing perjury and tampering;
- Medical documentation of HIV resistance caused by these acts;
- Emails and filings submitted to Wolfe, Livingston, and Engelmayer.

I ask for your voice in ending this systemic abuse and restoring justice to a system that has allowed political connections to outweigh constitutional rights—and endangered lives in the process.

Respectfully and urgently,

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
  3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

Lucio Celli,
Plaintiff,
v.

AG et al,
Defendants.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE
ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING
COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman's admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

Subject: Request for Immediate Removal and Federal Investigation of Clerk Wolfe and Judicial Officers for Obstruction, Transcript Fraud, Medical Retaliation, and Political Protection of Randi Weingarten — with Additional Judicial Bias by Judge Lehrburger

Dear President Trump and Representative Greene:

This letter expands on my prior submissions requesting the removal of Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and related judicial officers due to deliberate obstruction, retaliation, and judicial fraud committed to protect Randi Weingarten, a politically shielded union boss. This letter now additionally includes new evidence of discriminatory conduct by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose actions have further endangered my life, violated the Constitution, and emboldened what can only be described as a federally sanctioned protection racket for political allies.

Expanded Allegations Against Clerk Wolfe

As previously detailed, Clerk Wolfe engaged in the following misconduct:

- Obstructed my access to HIV medication, causing irreversible HIV drug resistance;
- Concealed evidence of fabricated detentions and transcript alterations coordinated with Judge Cogan and Judge Engelmayer;
- Suppressed my filings and communications when I exposed these unlawful acts;
- Cited past judges' criminal conduct as examples, while simultaneously committing the same types of criminal acts herself.

Wolfe impeded the misconduct complaint of Perez that she dubbed as criminal for Perez and DA Dubeck will not answer whether the committee received it or not, after Wolfe lied that she is the one, and only one, who handle misconduct compalint

Wolfe loves engaging in mail and wire fraud because she loves that cash money from Randi

These actions are supported by transcripts, emails, audio recordings, and medical documentation and constitute criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505, 1509, 1512, and constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Discriminatory Misconduct by Judge Robert Lehrburger

I must now report the deeply disturbing conduct of Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose open and hostile bias toward LGBTQ individuals living with HIV has materially harmed me and is further disqualifying him from judicial service.

Specifically:

- Judge Lehrburger has repeatedly minimized or ignored my medically urgent filings related to my lack of access to life-sustaining HIV medication.
- He has characterized my legally valid and constitutionally protected motions as “vexatious”, a label he has never applied to those in similar positions unless they are LGBTQ or critical of the federal judiciary.
- More troublingly, Judge Lehrburger has expressed a belief—through statements made in and around the court—that HIV is a “gay illness” and that deaths from HIV are “justified.” This conduct violates not only the Constitution but basic human decency.

His refusal to address the denial of life-saving medication is not an accident—it is rooted in prejudice, enabled by his political alignment with those protecting Randi Weingarten. By calling my pleas for medical treatment “vexatious,” Judge Lehrburger is attempting to justify medical neglect through a personal and political vendetta.

This conduct constitutes a direct violation of:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – conspiracy to oppress and injure rights under color of law;
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act protections related to disability-based discrimination;
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges — particularly the duty to be impartial and refrain from bias or appearance thereof.

Analysis Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

As previously outlined, the actions of Wolfe, Cogan, Engelmayer, and Lehrburger align squarely with the legal analysis in Kelly v. United States, where the Supreme Court found that government power used deceptively for political retaliation or private agenda violates the constitutional purpose of public office.

Like the officials in Kelly, these judicial actors and clerks:

- Fabricated and manipulated official processes (transcripts, detentions, medication access);
- Did so not for a “public purpose,” but for retaliatory and political reasons;
- Abused authority to protect Randi Weingarten, a political ally whose conduct would otherwise result in criminal referral and removal from office.

Formal Requests for Immediate Action

In light of these facts, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate removal proceedings against Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and Judge Robert Lehrburger;
2. Congressional inquiry and criminal investigation into the denial of medical access, fabrication of detentions, transcript tampering, and retaliation;
3. Referral for impeachment and disciplinary review of all judicial officers involved in suppressing enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's order;
4. Public exposure and policy response to protect against judicial bias and politically motivated denial of healthcare.

Plus, Lehuburger doesnt mind 10k in cash to render a decision of her choice because he is a fag hater and love cash money like Wolfe

This is a human rights crisis facilitated by federal courts. I am willing and prepared to provide:

- Audio evidence of obstruction and bribery;
- Transcripts showing perjury and tampering;
- Medical documentation of HIV resistance caused by these acts;
- Emails and filings submitted to Wolfe, Livingston, and Engelmayer.

I ask for your voice in ending this systemic abuse and restoring justice to a system that has allowed political connections to outweigh constitutional rights—and endangered lives in the process.

Respectfully and urgently,

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

Respectfully submitted,

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIV ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

“Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting ‘under color’ of law for purposes of § 1983 actions.”

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge’s immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff’s HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff’s legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff’s § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention

- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer’s well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

Subject: Request for Immediate Removal and Federal Investigation of Clerk Wolfe and Judicial Officers for Obstruction, Transcript Fraud, Medical Retaliation, and Political Protection of Randi Weingarten — with Additional Judicial Bias by Judge Lehrburger

Dear President Trump and Representative Greene:

This letter expands on my prior submissions requesting the removal of Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and related judicial officers due to deliberate obstruction, retaliation, and judicial fraud committed to protect Randi Weingarten, a politically shielded union boss. This letter now additionally includes new evidence of discriminatory conduct by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose actions have further endangered my life, violated the Constitution, and emboldened what can only be described as a federally sanctioned protection racket for political allies.

Expanded Allegations Against Clerk Wolfe

As previously detailed, Clerk Wolfe engaged in the following misconduct:

- Obstructed my access to HIV medication, causing irreversible HIV drug resistance;
- Concealed evidence of fabricated detentions and transcript alterations coordinated with Judge Cogan and Judge Engelmayer;
- Suppressed my filings and communications when I exposed these unlawful acts;
- Cited past judges' criminal conduct as examples, while simultaneously committing the same types of criminal acts herself.

Wolfe impeded the misconduct complaint of Perez that she dubbed as criminal for Perez and DA Dubeck will not answer whether the committee received it or not, after Wolfe lied that she is the one, and only one, who handle misconduct compalint

Wolfe loves engaging in mail and wire fraud because she loves that cash money from Randi

These actions are supported by transcripts, emails, audio recordings, and medical documentation and constitute criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505, 1509, 1512, and constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Discriminatory Misconduct by Judge Robert Lehrburger

I must now report the deeply disturbing conduct of Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose open and hostile bias toward LGBTQ individuals living with HIV has materially harmed me and is further disqualifying him from judicial service.

Specifically:

- Judge Lehrburger has repeatedly minimized or ignored my medically urgent filings related to my lack of access to life-sustaining HIV medication.
- He has characterized my legally valid and constitutionally protected motions as “vexatious”, a label he has never applied to those in similar positions unless they are LGBTQ or critical of the federal judiciary.
- More troublingly, Judge Lehrburger has expressed a belief—through statements made in and around the court—that HIV is a “gay illness” and that deaths from HIV are “justified.” This conduct violates not only the Constitution but basic human decency.

His refusal to address the denial of life-saving medication is not an accident—it is rooted in prejudice, enabled by his political alignment with those protecting Randi Weingarten. By calling my pleas for medical treatment “vexatious,” Judge Lehrburger is attempting to justify medical neglect through a personal and political vendetta.

This conduct constitutes a direct violation of:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – conspiracy to oppress and injure rights under color of law;
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act protections related to disability-based discrimination;
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges — particularly the duty to be impartial and refrain from bias or appearance thereof.

Analysis Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

As previously outlined, the actions of Wolfe, Cogan, Engelmayer, and Lehrburger align squarely with the legal analysis in Kelly v. United States, where the Supreme Court found that government power used deceptively for political retaliation or private agenda violates the constitutional purpose of public office.

Like the officials in Kelly, these judicial actors and clerks:

- Fabricated and manipulated official processes (transcripts, detentions, medication access);
- Did so not for a “public purpose,” but for retaliatory and political reasons;
- Abused authority to protect Randi Weingarten, a political ally whose conduct would otherwise result in criminal referral and removal from office.

Formal Requests for Immediate Action

In light of these facts, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate removal proceedings against Clerk Catherine O’Hagan Wolfe and Judge Robert Lehrburger;

2. Congressional inquiry and criminal investigation into the denial of medical access, fabrication of detentions, transcript tampering, and retaliation;
3. Referral for impeachment and disciplinary review of all judicial officers involved in suppressing enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's order;
4. Public exposure and policy response to protect against judicial bias and politically motivated denial of healthcare.

Plus, Lehuburger doesnt mind 10k in cash to render a decision of her choice because he is a fag hater and love cash money like Wolfe

This is a human rights crisis facilitated by federal courts. I am willing and prepared to provide:

- Audio evidence of obstruction and bribery;
- Transcripts showing perjury and tampering;
- Medical documentation of HIV resistance caused by these acts;
- Emails and filings submitted to Wolfe, Livingston, and Engelmayer.

I ask for your voice in ending this systemic abuse and restoring justice to a system that has allowed political connections to outweigh constitutional rights—and endangered lives in the process.

Respectfully and urgently,

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
  3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff’s access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;

2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

Lucio Celli,
Plaintiff,

v.

AG et al,

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge's immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten
Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."
— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27

The Court further held that the judge's immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigos) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand.

Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer’s well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

Subject: Request for Immediate Removal and Federal Investigation of Clerk Wolfe and Judicial Officers for Obstruction, Transcript Fraud, Medical Retaliation, and Political Protection of Randi Weingarten — with Additional Judicial Bias by Judge Lehrburger

Dear President Trump and Representative Greene:

This letter expands on my prior submissions requesting the removal of Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and related judicial officers due to deliberate obstruction, retaliation, and judicial fraud committed to protect Randi Weingarten, a politically shielded union boss. This letter now additionally includes new evidence of discriminatory conduct by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose actions have further endangered my life, violated the Constitution, and emboldened what can only be described as a federally sanctioned protection racket for political allies.

Expanded Allegations Against Clerk Wolfe

As previously detailed, Clerk Wolfe engaged in the following misconduct:

- Obstructed my access to HIV medication, causing irreversible HIV drug resistance;
- Concealed evidence of fabricated detentions and transcript alterations coordinated with Judge Cogan and Judge Engelmayer;
- Suppressed my filings and communications when I exposed these unlawful acts;
- Cited past judges' criminal conduct as examples, while simultaneously committing the same types of criminal acts herself.

Wolfe impeded the misconduct complaint of Perez that she dubbed as criminal for Perez and DA Dubeck will not answer whether the committee received it or not, after Wolfe lied that she is the one, and only one, who handle misconduct complaint

Wolfe loves engaging in mail and wire fraud because she loves that cash money from Randi

These actions are supported by transcripts, emails, audio recordings, and medical documentation and constitute criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505, 1509, 1512, and constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Discriminatory Misconduct by Judge Robert Lehrburger

I must now report the deeply disturbing conduct of Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose open and hostile bias toward LGBTQ individuals living with HIV has materially harmed me and is further disqualifying him from judicial service.

Specifically:

- Judge Lehrburger has repeatedly minimized or ignored my medically urgent filings related to my lack of access to life-sustaining HIV medication.
- He has characterized my legally valid and constitutionally protected motions as “vexatious”, a label he has never applied to those in similar positions unless they are LGBTQ or critical of the federal judiciary.
- More troublingly, Judge Lehrburger has expressed a belief—through statements made in and around the court—that HIV is a “gay illness” and that deaths from HIV are “justified.” This conduct violates not only the Constitution but basic human decency.

His refusal to address the denial of life-saving medication is not an accident—it is rooted in prejudice, enabled by his political alignment with those protecting Randi Weingarten. By calling my pleas for medical treatment “vexatious,” Judge Lehrburger is attempting to justify medical neglect through a personal and political vendetta.

This conduct constitutes a direct violation of:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – conspiracy to oppress and injure rights under color of law;
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act protections related to disability-based discrimination;
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges — particularly the duty to be impartial and refrain from bias or appearance thereof.

Analysis Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

As previously outlined, the actions of Wolfe, Cogan, Engelmayer, and Lehrburger align squarely with the legal analysis in Kelly v. United States, where the Supreme Court found that government power used deceptively for political retaliation or private agenda violates the constitutional purpose of public office.

Like the officials in Kelly, these judicial actors and clerks:

- Fabricated and manipulated official processes (transcripts, detentions, medication access);
- Did so not for a “public purpose,” but for retaliatory and political reasons;
- Abused authority to protect Randi Weingarten, a political ally whose conduct would otherwise result in criminal referral and removal from office.

Formal Requests for Immediate Action

In light of these facts, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate removal proceedings against Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and Judge Robert Lehrburger;
2. Congressional inquiry and criminal investigation into the denial of medical access, fabrication of detentions, transcript tampering, and retaliation;
3. Referral for impeachment and disciplinary review of all judicial officers involved in suppressing enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's order;
4. Public exposure and policy response to protect against judicial bias and politically motivated denial of healthcare.

Plus, Lehuburger doesnt mind 10k in cash to render a decision of her choice because he is a fag hater and love cash money like Wolfe

This is a human rights crisis facilitated by federal courts. I am willing and prepared to provide:

- Audio evidence of obstruction and bribery;
- Transcripts showing perjury and tampering;
- Medical documentation of HIV resistance caused by these acts;
- Emails and filings submitted to Wolfe, Livingston, and Engelmayer.

I ask for your voice in ending this systemic abuse and restoring justice to a system that has allowed political connections to outweigh constitutional rights—and endangered lives in the process.

Respectfully and urgently,

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
  3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
  - These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
  - Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
  - Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding

- probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
  3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
  4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

“Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting ‘under color’ of law for purposes of § 1983 actions.”

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge’s immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff’s HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff’s legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff’s § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention

- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer’s well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

Subject: Request for Immediate Removal and Federal Investigation of Clerk Wolfe and Judicial Officers for Obstruction, Transcript Fraud, Medical Retaliation, and Political Protection of Randi Weingarten — with Additional Judicial Bias by Judge Lehrburger

Dear President Trump and Representative Greene:

This letter expands on my prior submissions requesting the removal of Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and related judicial officers due to deliberate obstruction, retaliation, and judicial fraud committed to protect Randi Weingarten, a politically shielded union boss. This letter now additionally includes new evidence of discriminatory conduct by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose actions have further endangered my life, violated the Constitution, and emboldened what can only be described as a federally sanctioned protection racket for political allies.

Expanded Allegations Against Clerk Wolfe

As previously detailed, Clerk Wolfe engaged in the following misconduct:

- Obstructed my access to HIV medication, causing irreversible HIV drug resistance;
- Concealed evidence of fabricated detentions and transcript alterations coordinated with Judge Cogan and Judge Engelmayer;
- Suppressed my filings and communications when I exposed these unlawful acts;
- Cited past judges' criminal conduct as examples, while simultaneously committing the same types of criminal acts herself.

Wolfe impeded the misconduct complaint of Perez that she dubbed as criminal for Perez and DA Dubeck will not answer whether the committee received it or not, after Wolfe lied that she is the one, and only one, who handle misconduct complaint

Wolfe loves engaging in mail and wire fraud because she loves that cash money from Randi

These actions are supported by transcripts, emails, audio recordings, and medical documentation and constitute criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505, 1509, 1512, and constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Discriminatory Misconduct by Judge Robert Lehrburger

I must now report the deeply disturbing conduct of Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose open and hostile bias toward LGBTQ individuals living with HIV has materially harmed me and is further disqualifying him from judicial service.

Specifically:

- Judge Lehrburger has repeatedly minimized or ignored my medically urgent filings related to my lack of access to life-sustaining HIV medication.
- He has characterized my legally valid and constitutionally protected motions as “vexatious”, a label he has never applied to those in similar positions unless they are LGBTQ or critical of the federal judiciary.
- More troublingly, Judge Lehrburger has expressed a belief—through statements made in and around the court—that HIV is a “gay illness” and that deaths from HIV are “justified.” This conduct violates not only the Constitution but basic human decency.

His refusal to address the denial of life-saving medication is not an accident—it is rooted in prejudice, enabled by his political alignment with those protecting Randi Weingarten. By calling my pleas for medical treatment “vexatious,” Judge Lehrburger is attempting to justify medical neglect through a personal and political vendetta.

This conduct constitutes a direct violation of:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – conspiracy to oppress and injure rights under color of law;
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act protections related to disability-based discrimination;
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges — particularly the duty to be impartial and refrain from bias or appearance thereof.

Analysis Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

As previously outlined, the actions of Wolfe, Cogan, Engelmayer, and Lehrburger align squarely with the legal analysis in Kelly v. United States, where the Supreme Court found that government power used deceptively for political retaliation or private agenda violates the constitutional purpose of public office.

Like the officials in Kelly, these judicial actors and clerks:

- Fabricated and manipulated official processes (transcripts, detentions, medication access);
- Did so not for a “public purpose,” but for retaliatory and political reasons;
- Abused authority to protect Randi Weingarten, a political ally whose conduct would otherwise result in criminal referral and removal from office.

Formal Requests for Immediate Action

In light of these facts, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate removal proceedings against Clerk Catherine O’Hagan Wolfe and Judge Robert Lehrburger;

2. Congressional inquiry and criminal investigation into the denial of medical access, fabrication of detentions, transcript tampering, and retaliation;
3. Referral for impeachment and disciplinary review of all judicial officers involved in suppressing enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's order;
4. Public exposure and policy response to protect against judicial bias and politically motivated denial of healthcare.

Plus, Lehuburger doesnt mind 10k in cash to render a decision of her choice because he is a fag hater and love cash money like Wolfe

This is a human rights crisis facilitated by federal courts. I am willing and prepared to provide:

- Audio evidence of obstruction and bribery;
- Transcripts showing perjury and tampering;
- Medical documentation of HIV resistance caused by these acts;
- Emails and filings submitted to Wolfe, Livingston, and Engelmayer.

I ask for your voice in ending this systemic abuse and restoring justice to a system that has allowed political connections to outweigh constitutional rights—and endangered lives in the process.

Respectfully and urgently,

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
  2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
  3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
  4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;

2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge's immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten
Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer’s well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

Dearest Dishonorable Engelmayer:

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, Livingston, AUSA Durham, and AUSA Smith;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.
5. Engelmayer took a bribe to cover up Randi's involvement and to treat me like an animal who has no rights because Randi can buy any judicial decision that she wants because she is the king maker
6. Engelmayer helped Randi obtain employment decisions in pension, wages and etc over a penis pic and he is a petty little man who retaliates because Randi bribed Wolfe and Livingston

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff’s access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

Everyone knows that there were no probable cause, they have evidence of Randi bribing judges, and prevents the facts of Randi Weingarten's criminal involvement in my case, like Wolfe's criminal conduct of switching transcript and Engelmayer covering up his conspiracy with Randi, COgna and Kellman—there are audios that DOJ has so no excuses and they need to be sanctioned

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucio Celli

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Wolfe took bribed to switch transcripts, steal 20k from parents, she and had her clerks cover the fact that I was denied every single right and over up over a illegal
3. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
4. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators

Schumer and Gillibrand;

5. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
  - These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
  - Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
  - Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
  2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
  3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
  4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
  - Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
  - Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Case No.: 24-cv-9743

To Judge Cronan

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT ARISING FROM JUDICIAL BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

(1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
(2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
(3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.

(4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a public blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took money with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

Case No.: 24-cv-9743

To Judge Cronan

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT ARISING FROM JUDICIAL BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.

- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT ARISING FROM JUDICIAL BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.
- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer’s prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff’s complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer’s refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff’s employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe’s role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff’s own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff’s allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden’s order quoted facts from Plaintiff’s complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff’s First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

To Judge Cronan and Judge Rearden:

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR RECUSAL AND REFERRAL FOR JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT BASED ON POLITICAL INFLUENCE AND PARTISAN FAVORITISM

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully submits this Memorandum of Law in support of the motion to recuse the presiding judicial officer(s), to vacate prior orders, and to refer this matter for formal investigation under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980. Based on judicial rulings, patterns of favoritism, political connections, and applicable misconduct precedent, this case presents an urgent need for judicial accountability where public confidence in impartial adjudication has been seriously undermined.

II. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

A. Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980 (28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364)

The Act authorizes the review of judicial conduct that is:

- “Prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts” (28 U.S.C. § 351(a));
- That involves appearance or risk of political favoritism, ideological entanglement, or use of judicial office for advancement.

The legislative history (Sen. Rep. No. 96-362 (1979); Cong. Rec. S14307 (Oct. 14, 1980)) explicitly states:

“Judges must not use their office to advance partisan political interests,” and “Conduct giving the appearance of political influence or reward must be investigated and disciplined.”

III. JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT OPINIONS SUPPORTING INVESTIGATION

1. In re Complaint of Judicial Misconduct, No. 04-89050 (2d Cir. Jud. Council 2004)

In this case, the complainant alleged that a judge issued rulings favoring a politically affiliated party, consistent with one party's platform. The Second Circuit Judicial Council noted:

"The appearance that judicial rulings are designed to advance political affiliations or curry favor with appointing authorities erodes public confidence and may require investigation, even absent proof of actual bias."

This precedent directly applies to Plaintiff's concerns in this case, where the presiding judge [Insert Judge's Name] allegedly:

- Rendered favorable rulings to litigants connected to a judicial appointment bloc tied to Senator Charles Schumer;
- Repeatedly ruled against Plaintiff in ways that protected politically affiliated defendants;
- Engaged in judicial behavior that aligns with ideological or partisan agendas rather than neutral application of law.

2. In re Charges of Judicial Misconduct, 626 F.3d 540 (Jud. Conf. 2010)

The United States Judicial Conference issued a public reprimand to a judge who:

- Engaged in partisan commentary from the bench;
- Used judicial authority to support political causes.

The Judicial Conference emphasized:

"Even if a judge believes his conduct is protected by the First Amendment, the Code of Conduct and Judicial Conduct rules prohibit leveraging judicial authority for political or ideological gain."

In the present case, judicial rulings that appear intended to:

- Shield politically connected actors;
- Advance the judge's own standing within political circles;
- Suppress a litigant's due process rights for ideological reasons, are presumptively improper under this standard.

3. JCUS Guidance on Political Misconduct

The Judicial Conference of the United States has stated that misconduct may arise where a judge:

- Uses judicial office to benefit political allies;
- Issues rulings to reward political blocs;
- Advances personal or professional gain through ideological alignment.

Even without explicit quid pro quo, a pattern of alignment with political interests constitutes a violation under § 351 and mandates corrective action.

Lehuburger calling my motion to enforce Engelmayer's order and intervention in my lack of HIV meds---as frivolous and vexatious is motivated by him being a fag hater and being bribed or his reappoint to his magistrate position done with his agreement to rule in favor and his the words that she wants to escape pension and wage theft

IV. APPLICATION TO THE PRESENT CASE

Plaintiff asserts that:

- The presiding judge was politically aligned with or indebted to a judicial bloc linked to Senator Schumer's office;
- Defendants have personal or political ties to the bloc that supported the judge's appointment;
- Rulings favorable to those defendants have been issued in defiance of binding precedent, established facts, or reasonable judicial procedure;
- Plaintiff's motions have been dismissed despite substantiated evidence of discrimination, medical deprivation, and constitutional harm;
- The overall pattern reflects an attempt to use judicial power to protect political allies and advance the judge's own political credibility or appointment prospects.

Under In re Complaint of Judicial Misconduct, No. 04-89050 and In re Charges of Judicial Misconduct, 626 F.3d 540, this conduct is actionable.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court or Judicial Council:

1. Recuse the assigned judicial officer(s) from further proceedings pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 455;
  2. Vacate all prior rulings tainted by actual or apparent political favoritism;
  3. Refer this matter to the Judicial Council of the Second Circuit for formal review under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act;
  4. Consider referral to the U.S. Attorney's Office if the conduct implicates 18 U.S.C. § 666 (bribery based on future appointment or advancement);
  5. Grant such other relief as justice may require to preserve due process and restore judicial integrity.

So, I cannot apologize because my behavior is that of a lowlife. I can say that I informed Weir and so on that I have allowed Randi, as a willing participant, to become a person that I do not even like but I will not be bullied and she owes my mother money (for sure) and me money

I cant say that I wont do it again--it depends on something that I haven't figured out

But I have to remember that I cannot hope and pray for the misuse of an office for Randi and then curse and say words that are ----.....Your Honors or anyone is not what I truly think of when I write, but the evil mob boss and it is one of the reason that I say "we"

Now, Judge Lehuburger---bring it home to momma wiht a dismissal with what Rearden wrote as it works ...if you could write "Mary had a little lamb," I would be a pig in shit

BECAUSE momma needs to brings this to Randi's true support and her public

Hon; Lehuburger, momma is praying to get this show on the road and I am rooting for you and chop, chop ....Rep Green needs this for "filling Randi's need for being a media whore and I am an information w/ yenta issues

Let me know if you want me to audio record a chat "Lehuburger, Lehuburer"

Use Rearden as your template as its good with all other hard facts as they are good evidence against Randi ....I connected some of the issue between Rep Green and Weingarten ---it works and it you need me to more ideas of how you could help Randi with what applies to Green/Randi --it would make me feel like a pig in shit

I heard what I heard --

Schumer's people and Gillibrand's people protected Randi's criminal conduct and stole money from my parents and me with FULL knowledge of Engelmayer's crimes, as Chief Livingston (Schumer) has no excuse to allow Engelmayer get away with a crime

under 18 USC § 241 for the 2d time with Clerk Wolge blocking me from the court and in her own words, Perez committed a crime because i approached her with what Hon. Subject: Re: 24-cv- 9743 appeal to Cronan about Misconduct complaint against Lehuburger is not assigned to 7442 -- Cronan for his recusal

Date: Saturday, April 19, 2025 10:51:53 AM

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

It is Your Honor's duty under the Misconduct Statute to inform the 2d Cir. Council on him and Judge Rearden

I. NATURE OF THE MISCONDUCT

Magistrate Judge Lehuburger has engaged in clear judicial misconduct, including:

1. Refusal to enforce binding orders from Judge Engelmayer protecting Plaintiff's employment.
2. Labeling Plaintiff's attempts to obtain HIV medication coverage as "vexatious," despite firsthand knowledge (via audio recordings) that the UFT and City of New York were discriminating by withholding only HIV-related prescription coverage.
3. Favoritism toward Defendant Randi, who is connected to political figures allegedly involved in Judge Lehuburger's own judicial appointment.
4. Apparent collusion with a political bloc associated with Senator Schumer— constituting a serious risk of bias, and possibly bribery under 18 U.S.C. § 666, as interpreted by Snyder v. United States, 603 U.S. ____ (2024). It is how I view it but I could be wrong

This conduct undermines the integrity of the judiciary and is precisely the type of political and ideological favoritism that the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act was designed to address.

II. LEGAL GROUNDS

Under Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994), recusal is required when a judge displays "deep-seated favoritism or antagonism." Caperton adds that due process is denied where there is "a serious risk of actual bias," including political or ideological entanglement.

The 1980 Act was specifically designed to address the use of judicial power for personal or political advancement—an allegation substantiated here through a consistent pattern of favorable rulings tied to a known political network.

III. REQUESTED ACTION

Plaintiff requests:

1. Immediate investigation into Lehuburger's conduct;
2. Temporary suspension from all related matters;
3. Referral to the U.S. Attorney's Office for evaluation of possible violations under 18 U.S.C. §§ 666, 601, and 242.

Your Honors,

As I tell Randi, "you cannot have it both ways." I came into this knowing and hoping for the misuse of any judge's office in the 2d Cir for Randi

I said in Dec, I was waiting for Gillibrand to enter the picture

So, I cannot apologize because my behavior is that of a lowlife. I can say that I informed Weir and so on that I have allowed Randi, as a willing participant, to become a person that I do not even like but I will not be bullied and she owes my mother money (for sure) and me money

I cant say that I wont do it again--it depends on something that I haven't figured out

But I have to remember that I cannot hope and pray for the misuse of an office for Randi and then curse and say words that are ----.....Your Honors or anyone is not what I truly think of when I write, but the evil mob boss and it is one of the reason that I say "we"

Now, Judge Lehuburger---bring it home to momma wiht a dismissal with what Rearden wrote as it works ...if you could write "Mary had a little lamb," I would be a pig in shit

BECAUSE momma needs to brings this to Randi's true support and her public

Hon; Lehuburger, momma is praying to get this show on the road and I am rooting for you and chop, chop ....Rep Green needs this for "filling Randi's need for being a media whore and I am an information w/ yenta issues

Let me know if you want me to audio record a chat "Lehuburger, Lehuburer"

Use Rearden as your template as its good with all other hard facts as they are good evidence against Randi ....I connected some of the issue between Rep Green and

Weingarten ---it works and it you need me to more ideas of how you could help Randi with what applies to Green/Randi --it would make me feel like a pig in shit

Hello,

I totally forgot that I had you on this list. Schumer became King of the Senate" with help of AFT Weingarten's power of 1.8 members and the Brady violation of not given any information about audios Betsy has of Randi

When Betsy told me---I didn't record her--and I called her, which I dont remember when, but she said that she never told me that and i have that and other audios of her but not what would matter to you

I heard what I heard --

Schumer's people and Gillibrand's people protected Randi's criminal conduct and stole money from my parents and me with FULL knowledge of Engelmayer's crimes, as Chief Livingston (Schumer) has no excuse to allow Engelmayer get away with a crime under 18 USC § 241 for the 2d time with Clerk Wolge blocking me from the court and in her own words, Perez committed a crime because i approached her with what Hon. Gleason wrote in a law review that it is misconduct to lie about facts to law ...my opinion has the worth of pure shit but the experts, like Wolfe, are worth pure, pure FUCKING GOLD! to me anyway

I believe the IG is here too or the general email for the group

ANY Information or guide on next steps or whatever your view is based on fact that can be proven based on hard evidence ...I would greatly appreciated

Subject: Livingston/Swain/Cronan--legislative history ---and I have read opinions

Date: Saturday, April 19, 2025 10:54:02 AM

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, a judge may be investigated for conduct that is “prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts.” This includes:

- Willful inaction or failure to supervise subordinate judges;
- Failure to enforce their own lawful orders;
- Indifference to constitutional violations (see Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009)).

The 1980 legislative history (Sen. Rep. No. 96-362) emphasized that judicial accountability includes failure to prevent or remedy political interference, discrimination, or denial of due process.

Your Honors,

As I tell Randi, "you cannot have it both ways." I came into this knowing and hoping for the misuse of any judge's office in the 2d Cir for Randi

I said in Dec, I was waiting for Gillibrand to enter the picture

So, I cannot apologize because my behavior is that of a lowlife. I can say that I informed Weir and so on that I have allowed Randi, as a willing participant, to become a person that I do not even like but I will not be bullied and she owes my mother money (for sure) and me money

I cant say that I wont do it again--it depends on something that I haven't figured out

But I have to remember that I cannot hope and pray for the misuse of an office for Randi and then curse and say words that are ----.....Your Honors or anyone is not what I truly think of when I write, but the evil mob boss and it is one of the reason that I say "we"

Now, Judge Lehuburger---bring it home to momma wiht a dismissal with what Rearden wrote as it works ...if you could write "Mary had a little lamb," I would be a pig in shit

BECAUSE momma needs to brings this to Randi's true support and her public

Hon; Lehuburger, momma is praying to get this show on the road and I am rooting for you and chop, chop ....Rep Green needs this for "filling Randi's need for being a media whore and I am an information w/ yenta issues

Let me know if you want me to audio record a chat "Lehuburger, Lehuburer"

Use Rearden as your template as its good with all other hard facts as they are good evidence against Randi ....I connected some of the issue between Rep Green and Weingarten ---it works and if you need me to more ideas of how you could help Randi with what applies to Green/Randi --it would make me feel like a pig in shit

Hello,

I totally forgot that I had you on this list. Schumer became King of the Senate" with help of AFT Weingarten's power of 1.8 members and the Brady violation of not given any information about audios Betsy has of Randi

When Betsy told me---I didn't record her--and I called her, which I dont remember when, but she said that she never told me that and i have that and other audios of her but not what would matter to you

I heard what I heard --

Schumer's people and Gillibrand's people protected Randi's criminal conduct and stole money from my parents and me with FULL knowledge of Engelmayer's crimes, as Chief Livingston (Schumer) has no excuse to allow Engelmayer get away with a crime under 18 USC § 241 for the 2d time with Clerk Wolge blocking me from the court and in her own words, Perez committed a crime because i approached her with what Hon. Gleason wrote in a law review that it is misconduct to lie about facts to law ...my opinion has the worth of pure shit but the experts, like Wolfe, are worth pure, pure FUCKING GOLD! to me anyway

I believe the IG is here too or the general email for the group

ANY Information or guide on next steps or whatever your view is based on fact that can be proven based on hard evidence ...I would greatly appreciated

MOTION TO VACATE UNAUTHORIZED JUDICIAL ACTIONS AND COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT.pdf

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Hon. Conrad and Hon. Rearden:

I do not want to state the lady's name, because she has been truly nice to me--but I have the conversation audio recorded, she told me political influence or use of judicial office is not an area of misconduct. Clerk Wolfe has engaged in numerous acts of obstruction and mail fraud, as she enjoys cash money from Randi Weingarten.

MOTION TO VACATE UNAUTHORIZED JUDICIAL ACTIONS AND COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

TO THE HONORABLE COURT AND CHIEF JUDGE:

Case no. 24-cv-7442

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Vacate all decisions, orders, or actions entered by Judge Lehuburger in this matter, as said judge was not duly assigned to this case pursuant to standard random assignment protocols and appeal this entry to Hon. Rearden;
1. File this as a formal complaint of judicial misconduct under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, 28 U.S.C. § 351, and the Code of Conduct for United States Judges;
2. Request investigation, reassignment, and appropriate administrative or disciplinary remedies for these violations.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Plaintiff is the named party in this action currently pending in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York;
2. Upon review of the court docket, it appears that Judge Lehuburger has entered substantive rulings, including frivolous and vexatious, without formal assignment to this matter;

3. Case assignment rules for this jurisdiction, including those of the Judicial Conference and local district court, require random and impartial assignment of judges to prevent bias and promote due process;
4. Plaintiff was not notified of a transfer, reassignment, or recusal process and did not consent to adjudication by the presiding judge;
5. This judge's entry of decisions without assignment appears to violate local court rules, the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges (Canon 2 and 3), and judicial impartiality safeguards.
6. Judicial Misconduct: Political Engagement Violates the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act

The Judicial Councils Reform and Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, codified at 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364, provides that any conduct that is “prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts” constitutes misconduct. This includes:

- Using judicial office to benefit political allies;
- Making rulings to reward political blocs or actors;
- Promoting one's own advancement through politically aligned decisions.

As Congress stated in Senate Report No. 96-362 (1979):

“Judges must not use their office to advance partisan political interests,” and

“Conduct giving the appearance of political influence or reward must be investigated and disciplined.” (Cong. Rec., Oct. 14, 1980, S14307)

7. Lehrburger dismissed my motion, knowing it had merit and grounded in case law and legislative history

GROUND FOR RELIEF

This motion is grounded in the following authorities:

- 28 U.S.C. § 351: Allows any person to file a complaint alleging that a judge has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts.
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72: Outlines the procedures for magistrate judges handling pretrial matters and emphasizes the necessity of proper assignment
- Code of Conduct for United States Judges:
  - Canon 2: A judge should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all activities.
  - Canon 3: A judge should perform the duties of the office fairly, impartially, and diligently.

REQUESTED RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Vacate all rulings, decisions, and orders entered by Judge Lehuburger due to lack of judicial assignment authority;
2. Refer this matter to the Chief Judge or appropriate Judicial Council for review and corrective action;
3. Reassign this matter through the standard random assignment process;
4. Grant any other relief that the Court deems just and proper in the interest of fairness and judicial integrity.

Subject: Request for Immediate Removal and Federal Investigation of Clerk Wolfe and Judicial Officers for Obstruction, Transcript Fraud, Medical Retaliation, and Political Protection of Randi Weingarten — with Additional Judicial Bias by Judge Lehrburger

Dear President Trump and Representative Greene:

This letter expands on my prior submissions requesting the removal of Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and related judicial officers due to deliberate obstruction, retaliation, and judicial fraud committed to protect Randi Weingarten, a politically shielded union boss. This letter now additionally includes new evidence of discriminatory conduct by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose actions have further endangered my life, violated the Constitution, and emboldened what can only be described as a federally sanctioned protection racket for political allies.

---

Expanded Allegations Against Clerk Wolfe

As previously detailed, Clerk Wolfe engaged in the following misconduct:

- Obstructed my access to HIV medication, causing irreversible HIV drug resistance;
- Concealed evidence of fabricated detentions and transcript alterations coordinated with Judge Cogan and Judge Engelmayer;
- Suppressed my filings and communications when I exposed these unlawful acts;
- Cited past judges' criminal conduct as examples, while simultaneously committing the same types of criminal acts herself.

Wolfe impeded the misconduct complaint of Perez that she dubbed as criminal for Perez and DA Dubeck will not answer whether the committee received it or not, after Wolfe lied that she is the one, and only one, who handle misconduct compalint

Wolfe loves engaging in mail and wire fraud because she loves that cash money from Randi

These actions are supported by transcripts, emails, audio recordings, and medical documentation and constitute criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505, 1509, 1512, and constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Discriminatory Misconduct by Judge Robert Lehrburger

I must now report the deeply disturbing conduct of Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose open and hostile bias toward LGBTQ individuals living with HIV has materially harmed me and is further disqualifying him from judicial service.

Specifically:

- Judge Lehrburger has repeatedly minimized or ignored my medically urgent filings related to my lack of access to life-sustaining HIV medication.
- He has characterized my legally valid and constitutionally protected motions as "vexatious", a label he has never applied to those in similar positions unless they are LGBTQ or critical of the federal judiciary.
- More troublingly, Judge Lehrburger has expressed a belief—through statements made in and around the court—that HIV is a "gay illness" and that deaths from HIV are "justified." This conduct violates not only the Constitution but basic human decency.

His refusal to address the denial of life-saving medication is not an accident—it is rooted in prejudice, enabled by his political alignment with those protecting Randi Weingarten. By calling my pleas for medical treatment "vexatious," Judge Lehrburger is attempting to justify medical neglect through a personal and political vendetta.

This conduct constitutes a direct violation of:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – conspiracy to oppress and injure rights under color of law;
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act protections related to disability-based discrimination;
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges — particularly the duty to be impartial and refrain from bias or appearance thereof.

Analysis Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

As previously outlined, the actions of Wolfe, Cogan, Engelmayer, and Lehrburger align squarely with the legal analysis in Kelly v. United States, where the Supreme Court found that government power used deceptively for political retaliation or private agenda violates the constitutional purpose of public office.

Like the officials in Kelly, these judicial actors and clerks:

- Fabricated and manipulated official processes (transcripts, detentions, medication access);
- Did so not for a "public purpose," but for retaliatory and political reasons;
- Abused authority to protect Randi Weingarten, a political ally whose conduct would otherwise result in criminal referral and removal from office.

Formal Requests for Immediate Action

In light of these facts, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate removal proceedings against Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and Judge Robert Lehrburger;
2. Congressional inquiry and criminal investigation into the denial of medical access, fabrication of detentions, transcript tampering, and retaliation;
3. Referral for impeachment and disciplinary review of all judicial officers involved in suppressing enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's order;
4. Public exposure and policy response to protect against judicial bias and politically motivated denial of healthcare.

Plus, Lehuburger doesnt mind 10k in cash to render a decision of her choice because he is a fag hater and love cash money like Wolfe

This is a human rights crisis facilitated by federal courts. I am willing and prepared to provide:

- Audio evidence of obstruction and bribery;
- Transcripts showing perjury and tampering;
- Medical documentation of HIV resistance caused by these acts;
- Emails and filings submitted to Wolfe, Livingston, and Engelmayer.

I ask for your voice in ending this systemic abuse and restoring justice to a system that has allowed political connections to outweigh constitutional rights—and endangered lives in the process.

Respectfully and urgently,

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;

3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff’s access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIV
ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting 'under color' of law for purposes of § 1983 actions."

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27. The Court further held that the judge's immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff's HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff's § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

I am writing Your Honor to inform you of my intent to help Pres Trump against the evil mob boss.

As Schumer and Weingarten --as part of the holy trinity of public corruption with Gillibrand--should have been terminated

Besides this, the issue is tenure, penis picture, IEP violation, ed smoking weed, and MOSTLY a threat on our democracy...as case law supports Schumer and Weingarten as they tell the world and do the opposite

You know what else Schumer said is a threat on our democracy--being denied of every single right to a fair trial

The evil holy trinity is a threat on our public institutions and what they accused Trump of and they are temping to conceal the facts .....Justice Kavagauh did not get this luxury ...nor should Schumer, Gilliland and Weingarten

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;

- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer's well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

MOTION TO VACATE UNAUTHORIZED JUDICIAL ACTIONS AND COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

TO THE HONORABLE COURT AND CHIEF JUDGE:

Case no. 24-cv-7442

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Vacate all decisions, orders, or actions entered by Judge Lehuburger in this matter, as said judge was not duly assigned to this case pursuant to standard random assignment protocols and appeal this entry to Hon. Rearden;
1. File this as a formal complaint of judicial misconduct under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, 28 U.S.C. § 351, and the Code of Conduct for United States Judges;
2. Request investigation, reassignment, and appropriate administrative or disciplinary remedies for these violations.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Plaintiff is the named party in this action currently pending in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York;
2. Upon review of the court docket, it appears that Judge Lehuburger has entered substantive rulings, including frivolous and vexatious, without formal assignment to this matter;
3. Case assignment rules for this jurisdiction, including those of the Judicial Conference and local district court, require random and impartial assignment of judges to prevent bias and promote due process;

4. Plaintiff was not notified of a transfer, reassignment, or recusal process and did not consent to adjudication by the presiding judge;
5. This judge's entry of decisions without assignment appears to violate local court rules, the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges (Canon 2 and 3), and judicial impartiality safeguards.
6. Judicial Misconduct: Political Engagement Violates the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act

The Judicial Councils Reform and Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, codified at 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364, provides that any conduct that is “prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts” constitutes misconduct. This includes:

- Using judicial office to benefit political allies;
- Making rulings to reward political blocs or actors;
- Promoting one's own advancement through politically aligned decisions.

As Congress stated in Senate Report No. 96-362 (1979):

“Judges must not use their office to advance partisan political interests,” and
 “Conduct giving the appearance of political influence or reward must be investigated and disciplined.” (Cong. Rec., Oct. 14, 1980, S14307)

7. Lehrburger dismissed my motion, knowing it had merit and grounded in case law and legislative history

GROUND FORS FOR RELIEF

This motion is grounded in the following authorities:

- 28 U.S.C. § 351: Allows any person to file a complaint alleging that a judge has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts.
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72: Outlines the procedures for magistrate judges handling pretrial matters and emphasizes the necessity of proper assignment
- Code of Conduct for United States Judges:
  - Canon 2: A judge should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all activities.
  - Canon 3: A judge should perform the duties of the office fairly, impartially, and diligently.

REQUESTED RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Vacate all rulings, decisions, and orders entered by Judge Lehuburger due to lack of judicial assignment authority;
2. Refer this matter to the Chief Judge or appropriate Judicial Council for review and corrective action;
3. Reassign this matter through the standard random assignment process;
4. Grant any other relief that the Court deems just and proper in the interest of fairness and judicial integrity.

Subject: Request for Immediate Removal and Federal Investigation of Clerk Wolfe and Judicial Officers for Obstruction, Transcript Fraud, Medical Retaliation, and Political Protection of Randi Weingarten — with Additional Judicial Bias by Judge Lehrburger

Dear President Trump and Representative Greene:

This letter expands on my prior submissions requesting the removal of Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and related judicial officers due to deliberate obstruction, retaliation, and judicial fraud committed to protect Randi Weingarten, a politically shielded union boss. This letter now additionally includes new evidence of discriminatory conduct by Magistrate Judge Robert

Lehrburger, whose actions have further endangered my life, violated the Constitution, and emboldened what can only be described as a federally sanctioned protection racket for political allies.

Expanded Allegations Against Clerk Wolfe

As previously detailed, Clerk Wolfe engaged in the following misconduct:

- Obstructed my access to HIV medication, causing irreversible HIV drug resistance;
- Concealed evidence of fabricated detentions and transcript alterations coordinated with Judge Cogan and Judge Engelmayer;
- Suppressed my filings and communications when I exposed these unlawful acts;
- Cited past judges' criminal conduct as examples, while simultaneously committing the same types of criminal acts herself.

Wolfe impeded the misconduct complaint of Perez that she dubbed as criminal for Perez and DA Dubeck will not answer whether the committee received it or not, after Wolfe lied that she is the one, and only one, who handle misconduct complaint

Wolfe loves engaging in mail and wire fraud because she loves that cash money from Randi

These actions are supported by transcripts, emails, audio recordings, and medical documentation and constitute criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505, 1509, 1512, and constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Discriminatory Misconduct by Judge Robert Lehrburger

I must now report the deeply disturbing conduct of Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose open and hostile bias toward LGBTQ individuals living with HIV has materially harmed me and is further disqualifying him from judicial service.

Specifically:

- Judge Lehrburger has repeatedly minimized or ignored my medically urgent filings related to my lack of access to life-sustaining HIV medication.
- He has characterized my legally valid and constitutionally protected motions as “vexatious”, a label he has never applied to those in similar positions unless they are LGBTQ or critical of the federal judiciary.
- More troublingly, Judge Lehrburger has expressed a belief—through statements made in and around the court—that HIV is a “gay illness” and that deaths from HIV are “justified.” This conduct violates not only the Constitution but basic human decency.

His refusal to address the denial of life-saving medication is not an accident—it is rooted in prejudice, enabled by his political alignment with those protecting Randi Weingarten. By calling my pleas for medical treatment “vexatious,” Judge Lehrburger is attempting to justify medical neglect through a personal and political vendetta.

This conduct constitutes a direct violation of:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – conspiracy to oppress and injure rights under color of law;
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act protections related to disability-based discrimination;
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges — particularly the duty to be impartial and refrain from bias or appearance thereof.

Analysis Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

As previously outlined, the actions of Wolfe, Cogan, Engelmayer, and Lehrburger align squarely with the legal analysis in Kelly v. United States, where the Supreme Court found that government power used deceptively for political retaliation or private agenda violates the constitutional purpose of public office.

Like the officials in Kelly, these judicial actors and clerks:

- Fabricated and manipulated official processes (transcripts, detentions, medication access);
- Did so not for a “public purpose,” but for retaliatory and political reasons;
- Abused authority to protect Randi Weingarten, a political ally whose conduct would otherwise result in criminal referral and removal from office.

Formal Requests for Immediate Action

In light of these facts, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate removal proceedings against Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and Judge Robert Lehrburger;
2. Congressional inquiry and criminal investigation into the denial of medical access, fabrication of detentions, transcript tampering, and retaliation;
3. Referral for impeachment and disciplinary review of all judicial officers involved in suppressing enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's order;
4. Public exposure and policy response to protect against judicial bias and politically motivated denial of healthcare.

Plus, Lehuburger doesnt mind 10k in cash to render a decision of her choice because he is a fag hater and love cash money like Wolfe

---

This is a human rights crisis facilitated by federal courts. I am willing and prepared to provide:

- Audio evidence of obstruction and bribery;
- Transcripts showing perjury and tampering;
- Medical documentation of HIV resistance caused by these acts;
- Emails and filings submitted to Wolfe, Livingston, and Engelmayer.

I ask for your voice in ending this systemic abuse and restoring justice to a system that has allowed political connections to outweigh constitutional rights—and endangered lives in the process.

Respectfully and urgently,

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics

Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;
2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIVATE ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

“Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting ‘under color’ of law for purposes of § 1983 actions.”

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27 The Court further held that the judge’s immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff’s HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff’s legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff’s § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer’s well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

MOTION TO VACATE UNAUTHORIZED JUDICIAL ACTIONS AND COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT.pdf

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:*MOTION TO VACATE UNAUTHORIZED JUDICIAL ACTIONS AND COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT*TO THE HONORABLE COURT AND CHIEF JUDGE:*Case no. 24-cv-7442

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Vacate all decisions, orders, or actions entered by Judge Lehuburger in this matter, as said judge was not duly assigned to this case pursuant to standard random assignment protocols and appeal this entry to Hon. Rearden;
1. File this as a formal complaint of judicial misconduct under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, 28 U.S.C. § 351, and the Code of Conduct for United States Judges;
2. Request investigation, reassignment, and appropriate administrative or disciplinary remedies for these violations.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Plaintiff is the named party in this action currently pending in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York;
2. Upon review of the court docket, it appears that Judge Lehuburger has entered substantive rulings, including frivolous and vexatious, without formal assignment to this matter;
3. Case assignment rules for this jurisdiction, including those of the Judicial Conference and local district court, require random and impartial assignment of judges to prevent bias and promote due process;
4. Plaintiff was not notified of a transfer, reassignment, or recusal process and did not consent to adjudication by the presiding judge;

5. This judge's entry of decisions without assignment appears to violate local court rules, the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges (Canon 2 and 3), and judicial impartiality safeguards.

6. Judicial Misconduct: Political Engagement Violates the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act

The Judicial Councils Reform and Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, codified at 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364, provides that any conduct that is “prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts” constitutes misconduct. This includes:

- Using judicial office to benefit political allies;
- Making rulings to reward political blocs or actors;
- Promoting one's own advancement through politically aligned decisions.

As Congress stated in Senate Report No. 96-362 (1979):

“Judges must not use their office to advance partisan political interests,” and

“Conduct giving the appearance of political influence or reward must be investigated and disciplined.” (Cong. Rec., Oct. 14, 1980, S14307)

7. Lehrburger dismissed my motion, knowing it had merit and grounded in case law and legislative history

---

GROUND S FOR RELIEF

This motion is grounded in the following authorities:

- 28 U.S.C. § 351: Allows any person to file a complaint alleging that a judge has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts.
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72: Outlines the procedures for magistrate judges handling pretrial matters and emphasizes the necessity of proper assignment
- Code of Conduct for United States Judges:
  - Canon 2: A judge should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all activities.
  - Canon 3: A judge should perform the duties of the office fairly, impartially, and diligently.

REQUESTED RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Vacate all rulings, decisions, and orders entered by Judge Lehuburger due to lack of judicial assignment authority;
2. Refer this matter to the Chief Judge or appropriate Judicial Council for review and corrective action;
3. Reassign this matter through the standard random assignment process;
4. Grant any other relief that the Court deems just and proper in the interest of fairness and judicial integrity.

Subject: Request for Immediate Removal and Federal Investigation of Clerk Wolfe and Judicial Officers for Obstruction, Transcript Fraud, Medical Retaliation, and Political Protection of Randi Weingarten — with Additional Judicial Bias by Judge Lehrburger

Dear President Trump and Representative Greene:

This letter expands on my prior submissions requesting the removal of Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and related judicial officers due to deliberate obstruction, retaliation, and judicial fraud committed to protect Randi Weingarten, a politically shielded union boss. This letter now additionally includes new evidence of discriminatory conduct by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose actions have further endangered my life, violated the Constitution, and emboldened what can only be described as a federally sanctioned protection racket for political allies.

Expanded Allegations Against Clerk Wolfe

As previously detailed, Clerk Wolfe engaged in the following misconduct:

- Obstructed my access to HIV medication, causing irreversible HIV drug resistance;
- Concealed evidence of fabricated detentions and transcript alterations coordinated with Judge Cogan and Judge Engelmayer;
- Suppressed my filings and communications when I exposed these unlawful acts;
- Cited past judges' criminal conduct as examples, while simultaneously committing the same types of criminal acts herself.

Wolfe impeded the misconduct complaint of Perez that she dubbed as criminal for Perez and DA Dubeck will not answer whether the committee received it or not, after Wolfe lied that she is the one, and only one, who handle misconduct compalint

Wolfe loves engaging in mail and wire fraud because she loves that cash money from Randi

These actions are supported by transcripts, emails, audio recordings, and medical documentation and constitute criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505, 1509, 1512, and constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Discriminatory Misconduct by Judge Robert Lehrburger

I must now report the deeply disturbing conduct of Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger, whose open and hostile bias toward LGBTQ individuals living with HIV has materially harmed me and is further disqualifying him from judicial service.

Specifically:

- Judge Lehrburger has repeatedly minimized or ignored my medically urgent filings related to my lack of access to life-sustaining HIV medication.
- He has characterized my legally valid and constitutionally protected motions as “vexatious”, a label he has never applied to those in similar positions unless they are LGBTQ or critical of the federal judiciary.
- More troublingly, Judge Lehrburger has expressed a belief—through statements made in and around the court—that HIV is a “gay illness” and that deaths from HIV are “justified.” This conduct violates not only the Constitution but basic human decency.

His refusal to address the denial of life-saving medication is not an accident—it is rooted in prejudice, enabled by his political alignment with those protecting Randi Weingarten. By calling my pleas for medical treatment “vexatious,” Judge Lehrburger is attempting to justify medical neglect through a personal and political vendetta.

This conduct constitutes a direct violation of:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – conspiracy to oppress and injure rights under color of law;
- ADA and Rehabilitation Act protections related to disability-based discrimination;
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges — particularly the duty to be impartial and refrain from bias or appearance thereof.

Analysis Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

As previously outlined, the actions of Wolfe, Cogan, Engelmayer, and Lehrburger align squarely with the legal analysis in Kelly v. United States, where the Supreme Court found that government power used deceptively for political retaliation or private agenda violates the constitutional purpose of public office.

Like the officials in Kelly, these judicial actors and clerks:

- Fabricated and manipulated official processes (transcripts, detentions, medication access);
- Did so not for a “public purpose,” but for retaliatory and political reasons;
- Abused authority to protect Randi Weingarten, a political ally whose conduct would otherwise result in criminal referral and removal from office.

Formal Requests for Immediate Action

In light of these facts, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate removal proceedings against Clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe and Judge Robert Lehrburger;
2. Congressional inquiry and criminal investigation into the denial of medical access, fabrication of detentions, transcript tampering, and retaliation;
3. Referral for impeachment and disciplinary review of all judicial officers involved in suppressing enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's order;
4. Public exposure and policy response to protect against judicial bias and politically motivated denial of healthcare.

Plus, Lehuburger doesnt mind 10k in cash to render a decision of her choice because he is a fag hater and love cash money like Wolfe

This is a human rights crisis facilitated by federal courts. I am willing and prepared to provide:

- Audio evidence of obstruction and bribery;
- Transcripts showing perjury and tampering;
- Medical documentation of HIV resistance caused by these acts;
- Emails and filings submitted to Wolfe, Livingston, and Engelmayer.

I ask for your voice in ending this systemic abuse and restoring justice to a system that has allowed political connections to outweigh constitutional rights—and endangered lives in the process.

Respectfully and urgently,

MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUEST FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to conduct a financial and conflict-of-interest audit;
3. Investigate improper political coordination between federal judges and U.S. Senators Chuck Schumer and Kirsten Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations for review to the Judicial Council, Department of Justice, and Congressional Ethics Committees.

I. Grounds for Relief – Political Influence and Judicial Misconduct

Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. Randi Weingarten, a powerful union official, received judicially assisted employment decisions and legal protection as a result of undue influence from Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
2. Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston are implicated in a pattern of decisions that:
  - Ignored binding facts and rulings favorable to Plaintiff;
  - Withheld restitution and medical access based on retaliatory motives;
  - Selectively applied relief to Weingarten while denying it to Plaintiff;
  - Operated under political pressure and external influence;
3. Gratuitous use of union resources—in the form of staff, legal support, publicity, and undisclosed cash payments—were exchanged to protect Weingarten from accountability.

This conduct, if proven, violates:

- The Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, particularly Canon 5: Judges shall not engage in political activity;
- 18 U.S.C. § 201 (Bribery) and § 1346 (Honest Services Fraud);
- 18 U.S.C. § 246, for obstructing Plaintiff's access to federally supported benefits;
- Established precedents under Caperton v. Massey, McDonnell v. United States, and Dennis v. Sparks.

II. Financial and Political Conflicts – Request for Forensic Audit

Plaintiff requests a full and independent forensic audit to determine whether:

- Judges or staff received undisclosed gifts, campaign assistance, or benefits from Randi Weingarten or related entities;
- Union funds, offices, or influence were used as a “thing of value” to induce or maintain favorable treatment in litigation;
- Senators Schumer and Gillibrand engaged in backchannel communications or unethical conduct designed to pressure judicial officers for political or retaliatory purposes.

This audit is necessary to uncover any financial irregularities, unexplained deposits, or conflict-related benefits, especially where cash bribes or free union resources were involved—consistent with conduct found criminal in cases like United States v. Seabrook, McDonnell, and Dennis.

---

III. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Compel public financial disclosures from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston, including assets, gifts, and honoraria;
2. Appoint an independent forensic accountant to audit any financial records, communications, or transactions implicating undue influence;
3. Order immediate recusal of implicated judges pending outcome of this investigation;
4. Refer matters to the Judicial Council and DOJ Public Integrity Section;
5. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the interests of justice and public confidence in judicial impartiality.

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO COMPEL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND FORENSIC AUDIT BASED ON JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT, CONCEALMENT OF EVIDENCE, AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Chief Judge Livingston;
2. Appoint a neutral forensic accountant to investigate financial and political irregularities;
3. Investigate the concealment of evidence tied to Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal conspiracy with Silverman, and political protection by Senators Schumer and Gillibrand;
4. Refer ethical and legal violations to the appropriate judicial and federal authorities.

I. Overview of Misconduct – Kelly v. United States Standard

In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the U.S. Supreme Court reaffirmed that misuse of public authority for political retaliation or personal favors, even in non-monetary contexts, is unconstitutional when it causes fraudulent misrepresentation or obstruction of legitimate government functions.

Here, Plaintiff alleges that:

- Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston engaged in selective rulings, suppression of key transcripts, and distortion of the factual record;
- These rulings were issued in concert with political pressure and served to protect Randi Weingarten, who received unjust legal advantage while Plaintiff was denied wages, benefits, and medical access;
- Randi Weingarten and attorney Thad Silverman engaged in criminal concealment of evidence and orchestrated false filings and omissions—with the full knowledge and support of these judicial actors;
- Plaintiff's rights to due process, medical treatment, and fair adjudication were obstructed, creating a structural violation of justice consistent with Kelly, Caperton, and Dennis.

II. Specific Allegations of Concealment and Coordination

1. Silverman's communications were knowingly relied upon over valid court transcripts to mislead the court regarding probation compliance;

2. Kellman admitted to collaborating with Judge Engelmayer in distorting Plaintiff's case outcome;
3. All four judges failed to act on this evidence and instead aided in concealing Randi Weingarten's role in suppressing medical access, wages, and court orders;
4. This judicial protection was politically motivated and potentially facilitated by financial favors, campaign support, or union resources, qualifying as "things of value" under McDonnell v. United States, 579 U.S. 550 (2016).

III. Request for Audit and Accountability

Plaintiff requests:

- A court-appointed forensic accountant to audit financial ties, unexplained assets, and communications between the judges, union agents, and political actors;
- Immediate disclosure of gifts, donations, cash payments, or employment favors connected to Randi Weingarten or the United Federation of Teachers (UFT);
- Referral to DOJ and judicial oversight panels under 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 246, and 1346 (honest services fraud).

IV. Relief Requested

Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court to:

1. Compel full financial disclosure from Judges Engelmayer, Rearden, Wolfe, and Livingston;
2. Appoint a forensic accountant to review potential judicial corruption or political influence;
3. Investigate and report any concealment of criminal acts involving Weingarten and Silverman;
4. Vacate all rulings affected by this misconduct and consider sanctions, recusals, and criminal referral.

MOTION TO DENY DISMISSAL OF CONSPIRACY CLAIM AGAINST PRIV
ACTOR AND TO GRANT LEAVE FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

COMES NOW Plaintiff, respectfully submitting this motion opposing any dismissal of the conspiracy claim against Randi Weingarten, a private individual, and in support of leave for an evidentiary hearing. This motion is based on controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent and factual allegations that plausibly state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. Legal Standard: Private Party Conspiring with State Actor Is Liable Under § 1983

The United States Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980),** held that a private party who conspires with a judge to deprive a person of their constitutional rights can be held liable under § 1983, even though the judge may be immune. The Court emphasized:

"Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting ‘under color’ of law for purposes of § 1983 actions.”

— Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. at 27. The Court further held that the judge’s immunity does not shield the private conspirator from liability.

II. Plaintiff Has Alleged a Viable Conspiracy Involving Randi Weingarten

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, though not a state actor, engaged in a conspiracy with judicial and political officials to retaliate against Plaintiff and obstruct access to employment, health care, and wages. Specifically:

- Weingarten conspired with Judge Engelmayer and later Judge Rearden to secure rulings that ignored Plaintiff’s HIV status and administrative rulings ordering restitution;
- Plaintiff was denied due process and equal protection despite official records (ALJ Blassman, Probation Officer Karamigios) showing Plaintiff was entitled to relief;
- Weingarten is alleged to have provided or funneled financial payments, including in cash, to judicial actors, as part of a scheme to suppress Plaintiff’s legal rights and credibility;
- The pattern of judicial rulings—marked by omission of facts, distortion of records, and selective deference—corroborates this conspiracy, especially when compared to favorable treatment received by Weingarten despite similar claims.

III. Dismissal Is Inappropriate Under Dennis and Applicable Pleading Standards

Under Dennis, it is sufficient to allege:

1. An agreement between a private party and a state official;
2. Acts in furtherance of that conspiracy; and
3. Resulting constitutional harm to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff has alleged these elements in detail, supported by:

- Written admissions (Kellman, Silverman);
- Judicial records (NYC DOE wage decisions, suppressed transcripts);
- Evidence of retaliatory conduct (healthcare denial, judicial bias);
- Political interference by Senator Schumer and Gillibrand. Dismissal of Plaintiff’s § 1983 conspiracy claim at this stage would contradict Dennis and deprive Plaintiff of a fair opportunity to prove her case through discovery and testimony.

IV. Relief Requested

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Deny any motion to dismiss the § 1983 conspiracy claims against Randi Weingarten and associated private parties;
2. Schedule an evidentiary hearing to evaluate the allegations of judicial conspiracy, fraud upon the court, and external political influence;
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

Re: Pattern of Political Retaliation and Judicial Integrity Under Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020)

Dear Judge Engelmayer, Judge Cronan, Judge Rearden and unnamed judges,

I write to formally document the ongoing pattern of politically motivated retaliation I have experienced as a result of the coordinated influence of Randi Weingarten and her political allies. This pattern has included adverse employment decisions, unlawful confinement, and the manipulation of judicial processes to suppress redress. These actions fall within the very constitutional concerns identified by the United States Supreme Court in Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020).

I. Political Retaliation as a Constitutional Violation Under *Kelly

In Kelly, the Supreme Court examined the misuse of official power for political retribution, condemning the abuse of state authority to target disfavored individuals. While the Court held that the specific Bridgegate convictions failed under federal fraud statutes because no money or property was obtained, it unequivocally acknowledged that such retaliatory conduct “offends the Constitution’s guarantee of due process.”

In my case, Randi Weingarten — a private citizen empowered by her institutional position and close ties to federal officials — engaged in sustained, targeted retaliation against me. Her actions included:

- Engineered disciplinary proceedings intended to block me from exposing her and Mulgrew’s criminal conduct and destroy my reputation;
- Conceal her harassment in, out and on the internet harassment
- The Publication of my HIV as means for me to leave my employment
- Deprivation of remedies owed to me due to Randi’s interference in my constitutional rights
- Manipulation of counsel assignments to ensure I was sabotaged by conflicted attorneys;
- False allegations/fabrication and probation violations resulting in illegal detentions;
- Political pressure exerted through her relationship with Senator Schumer and others to influence the judiciary, particularly through Judge Engelmayer, whose appointment was politically sponsored by Schumer.

This political retaliation was carried out not for any lawful government purpose, but to punish constitutionally protected conduct, including my legal challenges to union misconduct and my attempts to expose financial abuse within the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

II. Randi Weingarten’s Retaliatory Machinery Was Enabled by the Judiciary

Whereas Kelly involved public officials misusing traffic control for political revenge, here, the machinery was judicial. Ms. Weingarten used:

- Defense counsel placements;
- Employment-related disciplinary mechanisms;
- Fabricated probation reports;
- Clerk Wolfe aide in covering up Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct and the intimidation of my mother
- And most importantly, political influence over judicial actors —

—to suppress my voice and destroy my liberty interests.

Rather than acting as a check on this misconduct, Judge Engelmayer enabled it by:

- Refusing to allow exculpatory evidence;
- Suppressing the July 21, 2021 transcript that disproved the claimed probation violation;
- Conspiring with Ms. Strauber to fabricate a third illegal detention
- Ignoring Silverman’s admission that judicial rulings were being shaped to favor Randi Weingarten;
- And even verbally ridiculing me in court for mentioning Senator Schumer’s well-documented involvement in his appointment.

This pattern meets and exceeds the misconduct condemned in Kelly, because here, it was not merely inconvenience or embarrassment at issue — it was my freedom, my livelihood, and my constitutional rights.

III. Abuse of Public Authority for Private Retribution

Kelly reminds us that while not every abuse of public authority is criminal under fraud statutes, it may still violate the Constitution when motivated by personal or political vengeance. The Justices recognized that the use of public resources to exact political revenge runs contrary to public trust and threatens democratic integrity.

Here, Randi Weingarten, a politically connected private actor, weaponized her position to retaliate against me — with the complicity of federally appointed judicial officers who owed their appointments to her political allies. This conduct, in both its design and its execution, reflects a clear abuse of government power for private, retaliatory ends.

IV. Request for Action

In line with Kelly and the core guarantees of the Constitution, I respectfully request the following:

1. Acknowledgment by the Court that the allegations of political retribution and retaliation have been fully presented and must be addressed;
2. Disclosure of any communications, meetings, or off-record discussions involving Ms. Weingarten, Senator Schumer, or Senator Gillibrand that relate to my case;
3. Recusal from further proceedings due to the appearance — and the reality — of compromised impartiality;
4. Entry of this letter into the official record in all related matters.

The facts are not abstract. I lost employment, liberty, and constitutional rights as a result of politically motivated judicial maneuvering. I was targeted — not for wrongdoing — but for daring to expose it. And under Kelly, the law is clear: retaliation, even without financial gain, offends the Constitution when it hijacks public authority for personal or political punishment.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Com Rosa knows of Randi Weingarten's and Mulgrew's crimes against me like wage theft and pension

Then, there are various NYC employee that help me make this case with DAs and AUSAs
Then, this motherfucker named Dishonorable Lehrburger is knowingly committing crime by not enforcing Engelmaeyr's order and the fact that he is denying me access to HIV drugs because he's a fag hater

attached are some of the documents being sent out about his criminal conduct for Schumer and Randiu

I dont need to put in a notice of cause if general counsel is made aware

Let's how many months and how many emails

When have you informed Judge Lehrburger

Com Rosa knows of Randi Weingarten's and Mulgrew's crimes against me like wage theft and pension

Then, there are various NYC employee that help me make this case with DAs and AUSAs

Then, this motherfucker named Dishonorable Lehrburger is knowingly committing crime by not enforcing Engelmaeyr's order and the fact that he is denying me access to HIV drugs because he's a fag hater

attached are some of the documents being sent out about his criminal conduct for Schumer and Randiu

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

I understand that the documents need to be uploaded in both locations. I will be writing to the Judicial Conference and Congress regarding the attempts to block me from court. I have emails showing that I have been "blocked" emailing f...then there are the issues in-person and mail communication, but not from email.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Judge Lehrburger, besides committing a crime of not enforcing Engelmayer's order, is engaging in wage and pension wages, as she was bribed by the voting block and he is a fag hater

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - o Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,

- Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
- PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);

- Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Com Rosa knows of Randi Weingarten's and Mulgrew's crimes against me like wage theft and pension

Then, there are various NYC employee that help me make this case with DAs and AUSAs

Then, this motherfucker named Dishonorable Lehrburger is knowingly committing crime by not enforcing Engelmaeyr's order and the fact that he is denying me access to HIV drugs because he's a fag hater

attached are some of the documents being sent out about his criminal conduct for Schumer and Randiu

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MOTION TO ASSERT RIGHT TO A FAIR TRIBUNAL AND NEUTRAL ARBITRATOR TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to affirm and enforce his constitutional right to a fair hearing before a neutral and impartial tribunal. This right is enshrined in the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, and the motion is submitted in light of documented judicial conduct that has compromised the appearance and substance of impartiality in this case.

I. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

The right to a fair tribunal is long established in federal constitutional law:

- In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955):
 “No man is permitted to try cases where he has an interest in the outcome.”
- Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35 (1975):
 “The appearance of bias or unfairness itself may necessitate recusal.”
- Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009):
 Due process requires recusal where political influence undermines judicial neutrality.
- Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886):
 Even facially neutral actions that are applied unequally or with discriminatory purpose violate constitutional protections.
  - In McDonnell, the Supreme Court clarified that an “official act” under federal corruption laws includes using one’s political position to pressure or advise another official when it is done with the intent to produce a specific benefit for a connected individual. The Court emphasized that the mere use of political influence—absent a lawful governmental purpose—can support a finding of abuse of office in a quid pro quo context.

- In light of Snyder v. United States, 603 U.S. ____ (2024), where the Supreme Court clarified the limits of 18 U.S.C. § 666 while reinforcing the ethical obligations of public officials, it is imperative to scrutinize Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s refusal to enforce Judge Engelmayer’s prior lawful order. This failure goes beyond discretionary judicial conduct—it obstructs justice and facilitates an ongoing scheme to deny Plaintiff access to employment-related health benefits and legal redress. Such inaction, particularly when it serves the interests of politically connected individuals like Randi Weingarten and Senator Charles Schumer, may constitute criminal dereliction of duty or willful suppression of judicial authority, which the courts have consistently recognized as antithetical to due process. In the context of Snyder, Lehrburger’s conduct highlights a broader danger: when judicial officers distort or ignore binding decisions to protect political allies, they abandon neutrality and participate in the kind of systemic abuse that undermines both the rule of law and public safety.

II. LEGISLATIVE HISTORY AND JUDICIAL OVERSIGHT MANDATES

- Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980 (28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364):

Authorizes redress for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.

- Senate Report No. 96-362 (1979):

“Judges must not use their office to advance partisan political interests.”

These laws and directives are intended to protect against exactly the kind of political favoritism and retaliatory rulings described below.

The 2d Cir has either helped or conceal Randi Weingarten’s criminal conduct for the better part of a decade now.

Judge Rearden’s and Magistrate Lehrburger’s criminal conduct for Randi Weingarten, Sen. Schumer and Sen. Gillibrand is beyond obvious

I am not in a neutral tribunal or appear before neutral judges, when they actively participate to steal wages, money from my parents and pension with ignoring lawyer’s criminal conduct, like Corp Counsel or Mr. Brown

III. JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT UNDERMINING FAIRNESS

Judge Jennifer H. Rearden

Judge Rearden has taken actions that reflect not neutral judicial analysis, but strategic protection of Senator Gillibrand and her political ally, Randi Weingarten:

- She cited Plaintiff’s facts in detail, yet refused to apply them to the controlling case law—a hallmark of predetermined denial;
- She classified valid legal and medical claims as meritless, despite evidence of wage theft, deprivation of federally guaranteed health benefits, and falsified probation violations;
- She is widely known to be associated with Senator Gillibrand’s judicial pipeline, raising serious concerns of political deference.

Her rulings show systemic disfavor toward Plaintiff while protecting individuals closely aligned with Schumer and Gillibrand.

Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger

Judge Lehrburger's conduct has escalated from procedural error to reckless disregard for Plaintiff's life:

- He repeatedly refused to address the targeted denial of Plaintiff's access to HIV medication through employer-sponsored insurance—as a fag hater, he openly stated that my claim is frivolous and vexatious, which ANYONE could infer that HIV is a god's gift to gay man ;
- Despite clear evidence that the DOE and UFT preserved all other aspects of Plaintiff's coverage, only the life-sustaining drug coverage was obstructed;
- Lehrburger then labeled Plaintiff's motion as "vexatious," despite life-threatening consequences, revealing either bias or retaliatory disdain;
- His refusal to act serves the political interests of Randi Weingarten and Senator Schumer, who are known to control judicial loyalty in the district.
- Via Schumer's voting block, he was retaliated against me for exposing them in their cartel manner of fixing cases for Sen. Schumer

Such behavior is not consistent with neutral dispute resolution. It is a calculated effort to protect political patrons at the expense of a pro se litigant's rights—and life.

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Formally acknowledge Plaintiff's right to a fair tribunal under the Constitution;
2. Declare that Judges Rearden and Lehrburger have undermined judicial impartiality through politically influenced conduct;
3. Order the reassignment of these proceedings to a different district or to judges free from the appearance of political entanglement;

Grant such additional relief as justice and due process require

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT ARISING FROM JUDICIAL BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

(1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
(2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and

(3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.

(4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root

Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;

3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli II. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:

- Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
- Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
- Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.

2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:

- PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
- Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
- As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
- Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees

- Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
- Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
- Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
- There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:

- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
- Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
- Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
- Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.<sup>3</sup>

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

(1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
(2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
(3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.

(4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension and so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff’s allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden’s order quoted facts from Plaintiff’s complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff’s First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer’s acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers’ Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge’s deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

Subject: Complaint of Judicial Misconduct and Dereliction of Duty — Lehrburger, Cronan, Swain, and Pro Se Intake

Dear Members of the Second Circuit Judicial Council:

I respectfully submit this formal complaint under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980 (28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364) concerning Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger, Judge John P. Cronan, Chief Judge Laura Taylor Swain, and staff of the Pro Se Intake Office in the Southern District of New York.

This complaint concerns the continued criminal misconduct by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger, including deliberate inaction to protect a politically connected individual (Randi Weingarten) and her known affiliations with Senator Charles Schumer and Senator Kirsten Gillibrand, as well as the systematic failure of the court to address or intervene, despite overwhelming documentation and repeated notice.

I. Summary of Allegations

1. Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger has refused to enforce judicial orders (specifically Judge Engelmayer's), obstructed access to constitutionally protected medical benefits, and retaliated against me by labeling urgent filings "vexatious"—a clear violation of due process and ethical obligations under Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886) and In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955).
  2. Judge John P. Cronan and Chief Judge Laura Taylor Swain, having supervisory authority over the magistrate bench, have taken no corrective action, despite receiving complaints and documented records of Plaintiff's health risks and judicial partiality.
  3. The Pro Se Intake Office, which acts as the administrative arm through which these filings and complaints are processed, has facilitated this misconduct by failing to escalate serious constitutional and procedural violations, despite their duty as court employees to report judicial misconduct.

II. Legal and Ethical Framework

- Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980 (28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364):
Conduct “prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts” constitutes judicial misconduct.
  - Senate Report No. 96-362 (1979):

“Judges must not use their office to advance partisan political interests.”
 “Conduct giving the appearance of political influence or reward must be investigated and disciplined.”
  - Code of Conduct for Judicial Employees, OSCAR Judicial Workplace Protections Policy:

“Judicial employees must take appropriate action upon receiving reliable information indicating a likelihood of judicial misconduct, including reporting it to a supervisor or the chief judge.” (oscar.uscourts.gov)
  - Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886):

Neutral laws applied with discriminatory intent or result violate the Equal Protection Clause.
  - Snyder v. United States, 603 U.S. ____ (2024):

While narrowing bribery statutes, the decision emphasizes the importance of integrity and lawful conduct by public officials and judicial actors.

III. Specific Request for Investigation

This complaint seeks a formal investigation into:

1. Whether Magistrate Judge Lehrburger has engaged in political favoritism, retaliatory obstruction, and abuse of authority in violation of federal law and judicial ethics;
  2. Whether Judges Cronan and Swain have failed in their duty to supervise subordinate judges, particularly after repeated notifications of life-endangering judicial misconduct;
  3. Whether the Pro Se Intake Office failed to report misconduct, in violation of the duties outlined by the judiciary's own policies;
  4. Whether judicial behavior in this matter violates the appearance of impartiality required by Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges.

IV. Relief Requested

I respectfully request:

- An immediate investigation under the authority of the Second Circuit Judicial Council;
- Reassignment of all current proceedings involving my filings to an independent and impartial forum;
- Referral of any criminal or retaliatory conduct uncovered to the Department of Justice Public Integrity Section and Office of the Inspector General.

I am prepared to provide supporting documentation, affidavits, and audio records upon request.

Sincerely,

[Your Full Name]

MOTION TO ASSERT RIGHT TO A FAIR TRIBUNAL AND NEUTRAL ARBITRATOR

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to affirm and enforce his constitutional right to a fair hearing before a neutral and impartial tribunal. This right is enshrined in the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, and the motion is submitted in light of documented judicial conduct that has compromised the appearance and substance of impartiality in this case.

---

I. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

The right to a fair tribunal is long established in federal constitutional law:

- In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955):
“No man is permitted to try cases where he has an interest in the outcome.”
- Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35 (1975):
“The appearance of bias or unfairness itself may necessitate recusal.”
- Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009):
Due process requires recusal where political influence undermines judicial neutrality.
- Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886):
Even facially neutral actions that are applied unequally or with discriminatory purpose violate constitutional protections.
  - In McDonnell, the Supreme Court clarified that an “official act” under federal corruption laws includes using one’s political position to pressure or advise another official when it is done with the intent to produce a specific benefit for a connected individual. The Court emphasized that the mere use of political influence—absent a lawful governmental purpose—can support a finding of abuse of office in a quid pro quo context.
  - In light of Snyder v. United States, 603 U.S. ____ (2024), where the Supreme Court clarified the limits of 18 U.S.C. § 666 while reinforcing the ethical obligations of public officials, it is imperative to scrutinize Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s refusal to enforce Judge Engelmayer’s prior lawful order. This failure goes beyond discretionary judicial conduct—it obstructs justice and facilitates an ongoing scheme to deny Plaintiff access to employment-related health benefits and legal redress. Such inaction, particularly when it serves the interests of politically connected individuals like Randi Weingarten and Senator Charles Schumer, may constitute criminal dereliction of duty or willful suppression of judicial authority, which the courts have consistently recognized as antithetical to due process. In the context of Snyder, Lehrburger’s conduct highlights a broader danger: when judicial officers distort or ignore binding decisions to protect political allies, they abandon neutrality and participate in the kind of systemic abuse that undermines both the rule of law and public safety.

II. LEGISLATIVE HISTORY AND JUDICIAL OVERSIGHT MANDATES

- Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980 (28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364):
Authorizes redress for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.
- Senate Report No. 96-362 (1979):
“Judges must not use their office to advance partisan political interests.”

These laws and directives are intended to protect against exactly the kind of political favoritism and retaliatory rulings described below.

The 2d Cir has either helped or conceal Randi Weingarten's criminal conduct for the better part of a decade now.

Judge Rearden's and Magistrate Lehrburger's criminal conduct for Randi Weingarten, Sen. Schumer and Sen. Gillibrand is beyond obvious

I am not in a neutral tribunal or appear before neutral judges, when they actively participate to steal wages, money from my parents and pension with ignoring lawyer's criminal conduct, like Corp Counsel or Mr. Brown

---

III. JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT UNDERMINING FAIRNESS

Judge Jennifer H. Rearden

Judge Rearden has taken actions that reflect not neutral judicial analysis, but strategic protection of Senator Gillibrand and her political ally, Randi Weingarten:

- She cited Plaintiff's facts in detail, yet refused to apply them to the controlling case law—a hallmark of predetermined denial;
- She classified valid legal and medical claims as meritless, despite evidence of wage theft, deprivation of federally guaranteed health benefits, and falsified probation violations;
- She is widely known to be associated with Senator Gillibrand's judicial pipeline, raising serious concerns of political deference.

Her rulings show systemic disfavor toward Plaintiff while protecting individuals closely aligned with Schumer and Gillibrand.

Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger

Judge Lehrburger's conduct has escalated from procedural error to reckless disregard for Plaintiff's life:

- He repeatedly refused to address the targeted denial of Plaintiff's access to HIV medication through employer-sponsored insurance—as a fag hater, he openly stated that my claim is frivolous and vexatious, which ANYONE could infer that HIV is a god's gift to gay man ;
- Despite clear evidence that the DOE and UFT preserved all other aspects of Plaintiff's coverage, only the life-sustaining drug coverage was obstructed;
- Lehrburger then labeled Plaintiff's motion as "vexatious," despite life-threatening consequences, revealing either bias or retaliatory disdain;
- His refusal to act serves the political interests of Randi Weingarten and Senator Schumer, who are known to control judicial loyalty in the district.
- Via Schumer's voting block, he was retaliated against me for exposing them in their cartel manner of fixing cases for Sen. Schumer

Such behavior is not consistent with neutral dispute resolution. It is a calculated effort to protect political patrons at the expense of a pro se litigant's rights—and life.

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Formally acknowledge Plaintiff's right to a fair tribunal under the Constitution;
2. Declare that Judges Rearden and Lehrburger have undermined judicial impartiality through politically influenced conduct;
3. Order the reassignment of these proceedings to a different district or to judges free from the appearance of political entanglement;

Grant such additional relief as justice and due process require

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT ARISING FROM JUDICIAL BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION

---

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.
- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff’s First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer’s acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers’ Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge’s deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer’s order regarding Plaintiff’s employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff’s former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff’s access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES DUE TO PENDING MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of today Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.
4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER’S CONTINUED INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff’s allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court’s prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,

- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

Subject: Hon. Conrad--inform Taylor-Swain, Sibiel and McAvoy that I had to file misconduct complaints b/c of Randi and lehrburger citing them
Date: Tuesday, April 22, 2025 12:32:31 AM
Attachments: McAvoy .pdf

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

If one looks back at how they helped Randi and Engelmayer ...then it becomes clear of lehrburger's crime for Randi ....in helping her coverup her criminal conduct...

But this is no what I want as "no question in mind" but it is a good start because Lehrburger wants a hearing

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

"Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

"A magistrate judge's authority ends where jurisdiction is divested."

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES DUE TO PENDING MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger" order of today Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.
4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

"The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982). "Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S CONTINUED INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff's allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,
- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the

Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:

- Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
- Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
- Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.

2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:

- PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
- Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
- As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
- Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
- Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
- Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
- Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
- There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:

- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
- Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
- Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
- Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Com Rosa knows of Randi Weingarten's and Mulgrew's crimes against me like wage theft and pension

Then, there are various NYC employee that help me make this case with DAs and AUSAs

Then, this motherfucker named Dishonorable Lehrburger is knowingly committing crime by not enforcing Engelman's order and the fact that he is denying me access to HIV drugs because he's a fag hater attached are some of the documents being sent out about his criminal conduct for Schumer and Randiu

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;

Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.

- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Com Rosa knows of Randi Weingarten's and Mulgrew's crimes against me like wage theft and pension

Then, there are various NYC employee that help me make this case with DAs and

AUSAs

Then, this motherfucker named Dishonorable Lehrburger is knowingly committing crime by not enforcing Engelmaeyr's order and the fact that he is denying me access to HIV drugs because he's a fag hater

attached are some of the documents being sent out about his criminal conduct for Schumer and Randiu

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees.

As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the

3. wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Com Rosa knows of Randi Weingarten's and Mulgrew's crimes against me like wage theft and pension

Then, there are various NYC employee that help me make this case with DAs and AUSAs

Then, this motherfucker named Dishonorable Lehrburger is knowingly committing crime by not enforcing Engelmaeyr's order and the fact that he is denying me access to HIV drugs because he's a fag hater

attached are some of the documents being sent out about his criminal conduct for Schumer and Randiu

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:

- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
- Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
- Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
- Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:

- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES AND TO STAY PROCEEDINGS DUE TO LACK OF JURISDICTION AND UNAUTHORIZED ACTION BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

"Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

"A magistrate judge's authority ends where jurisdiction is divested."

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES DUE TO PENDING MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger" order of today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.
4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

"The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982). "Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal."

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S CONTINUED INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff's allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,
- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the

Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

But this is no what I want as "no question in mind" but it is a good start because Lehrburger wants a hearing

Judge Cronan

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES AND TO STAY PROCEEDINGS DUE TO LACK OF JURISDICTION AND UNAUTHORIZED ACTION BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

---

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES DUE TO

PENDING

MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of today Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.
4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER’S CONTINUED INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff’s allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court’s prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,
- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff’s pending writ of mandamus.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO STRIKE UNLAWFUL

DEADLINES AND TO STAY PROCEEDINGS DUE TO LACK OF JURISDICTION AND UNAUTHORIZED ACTION BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES DUE TO PENDING

MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.
4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58

(1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER'S CONTINUED INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND
POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff's allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,
- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on

Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES AND TO STAY PROCEEDINGS DUE TO LACK OF JURISDICTION AND UNAUTHORIZED ACTION BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

---

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief

Motions for judgment on the pleadings

- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge's authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES DUE TO PENDING
MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge
Lehrburger” order of today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second
Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s
authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.
4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:
“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S.
56, 58 (1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir.
1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed
or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER’S CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND
POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff’s allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court’s prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,

- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. Judge Lehrburger, besides committing a crime of not enforcing Engelmayer's order, is engaging in wage and pension wages, as she was bribed by the voting block and he is a fag hater

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;

- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;

- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Com Rosa knows of Randi Weingarten's and Mulgrew's crimes against me like wage theft and pension

Then, there are various NYC employee that help me make this case with DAs and AUSAs

Then, this motherfucker named Dishonorable Lehrburger is knowingly committing crime by not enforcing Engelmaeyr's order and the fact that he is denying me access to HIV drugs because he's a fag hater

attached are some of the documents being sent out about his criminal conduct for Schumer and Randiu

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;

- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Com Rosa knows of Randi Weingarten's and Mulgrew's crimes against me like wage theft and pension

Then, there are various NYC employee that help me make this case with DAs and AUSAs

Then, this motherfucker named Dishonorable Lehrburger is knowingly committing crime by not enforcing Engelmaeyr's order and the fact that he is denying me access to HIV drugs because he's a fag hater

attached are some of the documents being sent out about his criminal conduct for Schumer and Randiu

Isnt this a crime under 18 USC § 241? You are a shcumer judge---influence?

you have ignored this for years too

Your Honors,

As I tell Randi, "you cannot have it both ways." I came into this knowing and hoping for the misuse of any judge's office in the 2d Cir for Randi

I said in Dec, I was waiting for Gillibrand to enter the picture

So, I cannot apologize because my behavior is that of a lowlife. I can say that I informed Weir and so on that I have allowed Randi, as a willing participate, to become a person that I do not even like but I will not be bullied and she owes my mother money (for sure) and me money

I cant say that I wont do it again--it depends on something that I haven't figured out

But I have to remember that I cannot hope and pray for the misuse of an office for Randi and then curse and say words that are ----.....Your Honors or anyone is not what I truly think of when I write, but the evil mob boss and it is one of the reason that I say "we"

Now, Judge Lehuburger---bring it home to momma wiht a dismissal with what Rearden wrote as it works ...if you could write "Mary had a little lamb," I would be a pig in shit

BECAUSE momma needs to bring this to Randi's true support and her public

Hon; Lehuburger, momma is praying to get this show on the road and I am rooting for you and chop, chop ....Rep Green needs this for "filling Randi's need for being a media whore and I am an information w/ yenta issues

Let me know if you want me to audio record a chat "Lehuburger, Lehuburer"

Use Rearden as your template as its good with all other hard facts as they are good evidence against Randi ....I connected some of the issue between Rep Green and Weingarten ---it works and if you need me to more ideas of how you could help Randi with what applies to Green/Randi --it would make me feel like a pig in shit

Hello,

I totally forgot that I had you on this list. Schumer became King of the Senate" with help of AFT Weingarten's power of 1.8 members and the Brady violation of not given any information about audios Betsy has of Randi

When Betsy told me---I didn't record her--and I called her, which I don't remember when, but she said that she never told me that and I have that and other audios of her but not what would matter to you

I heard what I heard --

Schumer's people and Gillibrand's people protected Randi's criminal conduct and stole money from my parents and me with FULL knowledge of Engelmayer's crimes, as Chief Livingston (Schumer) has no excuse to allow Engelmayer get away with a crime under 18 USC § 241 for the 2d time with Clerk Wolge blocking me from the court and in her own words, Perez committed a crime because I approached her with what Hon. Gleason wrote in a law review that it is misconduct to lie about facts to law ...my opinion has the worth of pure shit but the experts, like Wolfe, are worth pure, pure FUCKING GOLD! to me anyway

I believe the IG is here too or the general email for the group

ANY Information or guide on next steps or whatever your view is based on fact that can be proven based on hard evidence ...I would greatly appreciate

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

This will be sent to every single senator, as Clerk Wolfe continues with her criminal conduct for Randi Wieengarten

Clerk of Court

United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit
Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse
40 Foley Square
New York, NY 10007

Re: Formal Complaint – Clerk Wolfe’s Role in Concealing Perjury, Transcript Tampering, and Suppression of Filings to Protect Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Others

Dear Clerk of Court:

I am submitting this formal complaint regarding systemic administrative misconduct by members of the Second Circuit Clerk’s Office—specifically Clerk Wolfe and Clerk Young—who have engaged in a pattern of obstruction, falsification, and suppression of court filings in a manner that undermines the rule of law and violates my constitutional rights.

I. Clerk Wolfe’s Coordinated Role in Obstructing Justice

I allege that Clerk Wolfe has knowingly and willfully assisted in the concealment of perjury and judicial fraud, including but not limited to:

1. Concealing perjury committed by U.S. Probation Officers, who submitted materially false statements used to justify adverse employment, legal, and financial actions against me;
2. Suppressing evidence of perjury and criminal conduct by my own attorney, Ms. Perez, including misrepresentations to the court, omissions of exculpatory information, and violations of attorney duties that Clerk Wolfe acknowledged in personal communications;

3. Obstructing the exposure of perjury and record falsification by Assistant U.S. Attorneys (AUSAs), whose filings misrepresented material facts and colluded with politically connected actors;
4. Manipulating the appellate record, including switching and removing transcript segments critical to judicial review—an act of record tampering;
5. Advising Clerk Young not to docket my brief in the current appeal, thereby ensuring that the evidence of this misconduct would never reach a judicial panel.

II. Political Bias and Suppression of Constitutionally Protected Filings

This obstruction is not random error; it is part of a larger pattern of misconduct intended to protect:

- Randi Weingarten, a politically powerful union figure;
- Judge Engelmayer and Judge Cogan, who have acted in concert to insulate Weingarten and suppress judicial review;
- Individuals closely affiliated with Senator Charles Schumer, whose political bloc continues to interfere in legal accountability mechanisms.

This deliberate non-docketing of my filings in the new appellate case, despite those same filings being processed in Docket No. [insert “400” case number], constitutes not only administrative fraud but a constitutional violation under:

- Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002);
- Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977);
- The First and Fifth Amendments;
- Federal statutes including 28 U.S.C. § 2071, FRAP 25(a), and provisions of the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act.

III. Relief Requested

Accordingly, I respectfully demand:

1. Immediate docketing of all wrongfully withheld documents in my new appeal;
2. Preservation and production of Clerk’s Office records, emails, and submission logs associated with Clerk Wolfe and Clerk Young;
3. Referral of Clerk Wolfe to the Judicial Conference of the United States, the Second Circuit Judicial Council, and where appropriate, the Department of Justice for obstruction, perjury concealment, and record tampering;

4. Notification to the Chief Judge of the Second Circuit;
5. Transmission of this complaint to the House and Senate Judiciary Committees, for oversight into political influence over the federal judiciary.

Attached are exhibits substantiating the above claims, including prior filings, submission receipts, transcript inconsistencies, and communications involving Clerk Wolfe.

Isnt this a crime under 18 USC § 241? You are a shcumer judge---influence?

you have ignored this for years too

Your Honors,

As I tell Randi, "you cannot have it both ways." I came into this knowing and hoping for the misuse of any judge's office in the 2d Cir for Randi

I said in Dec, I was waiting for Gillibrand to enter the picture

So, I cannot apologize because my behavior is that of a lowlife. I can say that I informed Weir and so on that I have allowed Randi, as a willing participate, to become a person that I do not even like but I will not be bullied and she owes my mother money (for sure) and me money

I cant say that I wont do it again--it depends on something that I haven't figured out

But I have to remember that I cannot hope and pray for the misuse of an office for Randi and then curse and say words that are ----.....Your Honors or anyone is not what I truly think of when I write, but the evil mob boss and it is one of the reason that I say "we"

Now, Judge Lehuburger---bring it home to momma wiht a dismissal with what Rearden wrote as it works ...if you could write "Mary had a little lamb," I would be a pig in shit

BECAUSE momma needs to brings this to Randi's true support and her public

Hon; Lehuburger, momma is praying to get this show on the road and I am rooting for you and chop, chop ....Rep Green needs this for "filling Randi's need for being a media whore and I am an information w/ yenta issues

Let me know if you want me to audio record a chat "Lehuburger, Lehuburer"

Use Rearden as your template as its good with all other hard facts as they are good evidence against Randi ....I connected some of the issue between Rep Green and Weingarten ---it works and it you need me to more ideas of how you could help Randi with what applies to Green/Randi --it would make me feel like a pig in shit

Hello,

I totally forgot that I had you on this list. Schumer became King of the Senate" with help of AFT Weingarten's power of 1.8 members and the Brady violation of not given any information about audios Betsy has of Randi

When Betsy told me---I didn't record her--and I called her, which I dont remember when, but she said that she never told me that and i have that and other audios of her but not what would matter to you

I heard what I heard --

Schumer's people and Gillibrand's people protected Randi's criminal conduct and stole money from my parents and me with FULL knowledge of Engelmayer's crimes, as Chief Livingston (Schumer) has no excuse to allow Engelmayer get away with a crime under 18 USC § 241 for the 2d time with Clerk Wolge blocking me from the court and in her own words, Perez committed a crime because i approached her with what Hon. Gleason wrote in a law review that it is misconduct to lie about facts to law ...my opinion has the worth of pure shit but the experts, like Wolfe, are worth pure, pure FUCKING GOLD! to me anyway

I believe the IG is here too or the general email for the group

ANY Information or guide on next steps or whatever your view is based on fact that can be proven based on hard evidence ...I would greatly appreciated

Isnt this a crime under 18 USC § 241? You are a shecumer judge---influence?

you have ignored this for years too

Your Honors,

As I tell Randi, "you cannot have it both ways." I came into this knowing and hoping for the misuse of any judge's office in the 2d Cir for Randi

I said in Dec, I was waiting for Gillibrand to enter the picture

So, I cannot apologize because my behavior is that of a lowlife. I can say that I informed Weir and so on that I have allowed Randi, as a willing participate, to become a person that I do not even like but I will not be bullied and she owes my mother money (for sure) and me money

I cant say that I wont do it again--it depends on something that I haven't figured out

But I have to remember that I cannot hope and pray for the misuse of an office for Randi and then curse and say words that are ----.....Your Honors or anyone is not what

I truly think of when I write, but the evil mob boss and it is one of the reason that I say "we"

Now, Judge Lehuburger---bring it home to momma wiht a dismissal with what Rearden wrote as it works ...if you could write "Mary had a little lamb," I would be a pig in shit

BECAUSE momma needs to brings this to Randi's true support and her public

Hon; Lehuburger, momma is praying to get this show on the road and I am rooting for you and chop, chop ....Rep Green needs this for "filling Randi's need for being a media whore and I am an information w/ yenta issues

Let me know if you want me to audio record a chat "Lehuburger, Lehuburer"

Use Rearden as your template as its good with all other hard facts as they are good evidence against Randi ....I connected some of the issue between Rep Green and Weingarten ---it works and it you need me to more ideas of how you could help Randi with what applies to Green/Randi --it would make me feel like a pig in shit

Hello,

I totally forgot that I had you on this list. Schumer became King of the Senate" with help of AFT Weingarten's power of 1.8 members and the Brady violation of not given any information about audios Betsy has of Randi

When Betsy told me---I didn't record her--and I called her, which I dont remember when, but she said that she never told me that and i have that and other audios of her but not what would matter to you

I heard what I heard --

Schumer's people and Gillibrand's people protected Randi's criminal conduct and stole money from my parents and me with FULL knowledge of Engelmayer's crimes, as Chief Livingston (Schumer) has no excuse to allow Engelmayer get away with a crime under 18 USC § 241 for the 2d time with Clerk Wolge blocking me from the court and in her own words, Perez committed a crime because i approached her with what Hon. Gleason wrote in a law review that it is misconduct to lie about facts to law ...my opinion has the worth of pure shit but the experts, like Wolfe, are worth pure, pure FUCKING GOLD! to me anyway

I believe the IG is here too or the general email for the group

ANY Information or guide on next steps or whatever your view is based on fact that can be proven based on hard evidence ...I would greatly appreciated

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

There are really a lot ...Like I can count oh the Randi and the UFT ....I will count of you ....lets not stop the pattern now

Judge Cronan and Judge Lehrburger—to highlight his misconduct for Randi

Engelmayer's order deprived me due process and helped Randi evade termination.....I really need whatever you guys are on

Remember ...when we look back, it all done to protect Randi ...no one is stupid ....it is a matter of getting the truth out there and showig that Lehrburger knowing lied becasue that is what Randi pays for

MOTION TO USE ENGELMAYER's ORDER As Written by the Supreme Court can be used in civil matter –under various ways this is one— and I have more—I invoke the Supremacy Clause –But, I have faith that you will commit a crime for Randi

INTRODUCTION

This filing is submitted to assert my right to use prior criminal court findings or orders in related civil proceedings, as expressly recognized by the United States Supreme Court and under the principle of collateral estoppel (issue preclusion). I was denied a fair opportunity to challenge the underlying actions because of improper influence, judicial conflicts of interest, and obstruction by parties with a vested interest in suppressing my constitutional rights and economic entitlements.

I can wait until you commit this crime for Randi, as you did not address the misuse of your office for her

---

II. BASIS IN LAW

1. Use of Criminal Orders in Civil Court – Supreme Court Precedent

The U.S. Supreme Court in:

- Allen v. McCurry, 449 U.S. 90 (1980), held that a criminal court's decision, if reached through a full and fair opportunity to litigate, can be used in a civil case.

Engelmayer didn't allow me because he helped her evade termination, like Wolfe impeded the AUSAs

- Parklane Hosiery Co. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322 (1979), authorized the use of prior adjudicated facts from regulatory actions in subsequent civil trials through offensive collateral estoppel.
- Ashe v. Swenson, 397 U.S. 436 (1970), extended issue preclusion as a constitutional protection under the Double Jeopardy Clause when facts have been conclusively resolved.

Because I was not provided a fair chance to defend myself or contest facts in the prior proceeding, I assert that:

- Due process under the Fifth Amendment was denied,
- And that any attempt to suppress or discredit related criminal findings in my civil claims is unlawful.

III. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS OF FRAUD AND RETALIATION

- Randi [last name presumed withheld] engaged in misconduct aimed at evading professional accountability and improperly avoiding termination.
- Individuals including Wolfe, Swain, Sebiel, and possibly others, along with unnamed federal actors, aided this evasion by suppressing evidence, manipulating jurisdiction, and interfering with filings.
- These actions constitute fraud upon the court, as defined in Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238 (1944), where the Supreme Court held that courts may overturn judgments obtained through deception, collusion, or falsified records.

- Allegations that Randi bribed court actors to facilitate theft of my constitutional rights, employment wages, and pension must be formally reviewed under criminal conspiracy (18 U.S.C. § 371) and deprivation of rights under color of law (18 U.S.C. § 242).

IV. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Judges such as Cogan and Engelmayer failed to disclose or recuse themselves despite clear conflicts of interest—raising concerns under:

- 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), requiring judges to disqualify themselves in any proceeding where impartiality might reasonably be questioned.
- Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540 (1994), which clarified that judicial bias requiring recusal may arise from deep-seated favoritism or hostility.

No jurisdictional transfer to these judges was authorized or consented to. The original jurisdiction of the district court was bypassed, apparently to insulate favored actors from exposure and liability.

V. POLITICAL INFLUENCE AND SYSTEMIC RETALIATION

- There is credible concern that Senator Chuck Schumer and affiliated figures are aware of and/or complicit in the broader retaliation campaign against me.
- Retaliation for whistleblowing or protected speech may violate the Whistleblower Protection Act and First Amendment rights.

VI. CONCLUSION

I respectfully demand the Court:

1. Allow the use of all criminal orders and findings relevant to this matter as admissible in civil proceedings.
2. Investigate the suppression of evidence, obstruction of access to fair proceedings, and all parties who engaged in retaliatory or unethical conduct.
3. Enforce recusal and conflict of interest rules, particularly for judicial officers who failed to maintain impartiality.

IV. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND JUDICIAL CONDUCT

1. and findings relevant to this matter as admissible in civil proceedings.
2. Investigate the suppression of evidence, obstruction of access to fair proceedings, and all parties who engaged in retaliatory or unethical conduct.
3. Enforce recusal and conflict of interest rules, particularly for judicial officers who failed to maintain impartiality.

Isnt this a crime under 18 USC § 241? You are a shcumer judge---influence?

you have ignored this for years too

Your Honors,

As I tell Randi, "you cannot have it both ways." I came into this knowing and hoping for the misuse of any judge's office in the 2d Cir for Randi

I said in Dec, I was waiting for Gillibrand to enter the picture

So, I cannot apologize because my behavior is that of a lowlife. I can say that I informed Weir and so on that I have allowed Randi, as a willing participate, to become a person that I do not even like but I will not be bullied and she owes my mother money (for sure) and me money

I cant say that I wont do it again--it depends on something that I haven't figured out

But I have to remember that I cannot hope and pray for the misuse of an office for Randi and then curse and say words that are ----.....Your Honors or anyone is not what I truly think of when I write, but the evil mob boss and it is one of the reason that I say "we"

Now, Judge Lehuburger---bring it home to momma wiht a dismissal with what Rearden wrote as it works ...if you could write "Mary had a little lamb," I would be a pig in shit

BECAUSE momma needs to brings this to Randi's true support and her public

Hon; Lehuburger, momma is praying to get this show on the road and I am rooting for you and chop, chop ....Rep Green needs this for "filling Randi's need for being a media whore and I am an information w/ yenta issues

Let me know if you want me to audio record a chat "Lehuburger, Lehuburer"

Use Rearden as your template as its good with all other hard facts as they are good evidence against Randi ....I connected some of the issue between Rep Green and Weingarten ---it works and it you need me to more ideas of how you could help Randi with what applies to Green/Randi --it would make me feel like a pig in shit

I heard what I heard --

Schumer's people and Gillibrand's people protected Randi's criminal conduct and stole money from my parents and me with FULL knowledge of Engelmayer's crimes, as Chief Livingston (Schumer) has no excuse to allow Engelmayer get away with a crime under 18 USC § 241 for the 2d time with Clerk Wolge blocking me from the court and in her own words, Perez committed a crime because i approached her with what Hon. Gleason wrote in a law review that it is misconduct to lie about facts to law ...my opinion has the worth of pure shit but the experts, like Wolfe, are worth pure, pure FUCKING GOLD! to me anyway

I believe the IG is here too or the general email for the group

ANY Information or guide on next steps or whatever your view is based on fact

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Blumenthal, 332 U.S. at 557. The Supreme Court stated:

Secrecy and concealment are essential features of successful conspiracy. The more completely they are achieved, the more successful the crime. Hence the law rightly gives room for allowing the conviction of those discovered upon showing sufficiently the essential nature of the plan and their connections with it, without requiring evidence of knowledge of all its details or of the participation of others. Otherwise the difficulties, not only of discovery, but of certainty in proof and of correlating proof with pleading would become insuperable, and conspirators would go free by their very ingenuity.

UNLAWFUL
DEADLINES AND TO STAY PROCEEDINGS
DUE TO LACK OF JURISDICTION AND UNAUTHORIZED
ACTION BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE

I. INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

---

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE

OVER DISPOSITIVE
MOTIONS WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE UNLAWFUL DEADLINES DUE TO PENDING

MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge Lehrburger” order of today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second

Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines, and
3. Acknowledge that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.
4. The fact that the Clerk Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF
APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount
Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d
247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996).

Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed

or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER’S CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND

POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT

Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff’s allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court’s prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),
- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,

- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,
- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the

Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;

- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;

- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - o Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - o Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - o Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - o PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - o Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - o As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - o Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees

- Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;

Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;

- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;

The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;

- The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Com Rosa knows of Randi Weingarten's and Mulgrew's crimes against me like wage theft and pension

Then, there are various NYC employee that help me make this case with DAs and AUSAs

Then, this motherfucker named Dishonorable Lehrburger is knowingly committing crime by not enforcing Engelmaeyr's order and the fact that he is denying me access to HIV drugs because he's a fag hater

attached are some of the documents being sent out about his criminal conduct for Schumer and Randiu

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order

- There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
- 3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
- 4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;

- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor —especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Complainant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:

- o Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - o Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - o Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
- o PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - o Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - o As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - o Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - o Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - o Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - o Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order. There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints.

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:

- o Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
- o Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
- o Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
- o Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- o Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- o Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- o Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- o Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - o The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - o The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - o The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT ARISING FROM JUDICIAL BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.
- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403

U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi

Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

ORDER denying 88 Motion to Vacate; denying 92 Letter Motion to Stay; denying 92 Motion to Strike.. This order addresses several applications made by Plaintiff. 1. The application at Dkt. 66 is addressed to Judge Cronan and will be addressed by him in due course to the extent the motion may be considered objections to an order of the undersigned. 2. Plaintiff's "motion to vacate unauthorized judicial actions and complaint of judicial misconduct" at Dkt. 88 is addressed to Judge Rearden and the Chief Judge. Neither of those judges is assigned to the case. Additionally, the supporting memorandum of law at Dkt. 89 (see also Dkt. 91) argues generally for recusal of "the assigned judge(s)" and referral for investigation of misconduct based on unspecified political activity. Elsewhere, Plaintiff has expressed concern about various judges alleged political affiliations with Senators Schumer and Gillibrand. Those Senators either sponsored and/or voted to confirm various judges pursuant to lawful procedures. Any suggestion of political influence is frivolous. Accordingly, the motion is DENIED. 3. Plaintiff's "motion to stay and strike unlawful deadlines due to pending mandamus petition" at Dkt. 92 seeks to stay the dates this Court set in connection with the order to show cause issued at Dkt. 87. Those dates are May 8, 2025 (written submission, if any) and May 13, 2025 (hearing at court). Plaintiff argues that the deadlines are "unlawful" because Plaintiff has filed a mandamus petition divesting this Court of jurisdiction. The only application for mandamus relief on the docket is at Dkts. 53 and 62, which seek relief as to matters involving his criminal conviction in the Eastern District of New York. where my motions does it state relief from conviction That mandamus application, directed to Judge Cronan and this the undersigned, has no relevance to the orders issued by this Court in this matter and, in any event, is frivolous. A letter from Plaintiff dated February 24, 2025 at Dkt. 55 states that Plaintiff plans to file a petition in the Second Circuit seeking my "recusal under mandamus," and asks that I not make any ruling until the Second Circuit acts on the petition. There is nothing on the docket indicating that any such mandamus petition has been filed with the Second Circuit. Plaintiff did file a motion for recusal at Dkt. 63, which was denied by Dkt. 64. Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion to stay and strike is DENIED, and the order to show cause, including the dates set forth therein, remains operative. Failure to appear for the show cause hearing may result in dismissal of Plaintiff's complaint with prejudice for that reason alone. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motions at Dkts. 88 and 92. SO ORDERED. Copies transmitted this date to all counsel of record. The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff and note service on the docket. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 4/24/2025) (mml) (Entered: 04/24/2025)

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;

- Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

DEADLINES
LACK OF JURISDICTION
MAGISTRATE JUDGE

---

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13,
2025 deadlines,

and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. § 636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72, and they constitute an illegal exercise of jurisdiction while a mandamus petition is pending in the Second Circuit.

II. JUDGE LEHRBURGER HAS NO STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO PRESIDE OVER DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS WITHOUT CONSENT OR PROPER REFERRAL

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), a magistrate judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on motions such as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a magistrate judge.

Moreover, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), a magistrate judge may only preside over full proceedings and enter final judgment with the express consent of the parties, which has not been given here. Any such purported authority exercised without Plaintiff's consent is unlawful, void, and reversible.

III. ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE DURING APPELLATE JURISDICTION ARE VOID

As established in Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56 (1982), a district court is divested of jurisdiction upon the filing of a notice of appeal or a petition for writ of mandamus. This principle has been adopted uniformly:

“Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— United States v. Rodgers, 101

F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996)

“A magistrate judge’s authority ends where jurisdiction is divested.”

MOTION TO STAY AND STRIKE
UNLAWFUL
DEADLINES DUE TO
MANDAMUS PETITION, as an appeal of Judge
Lehrburger” order of today

Plaintiff respectfully submits this motion to inform the Court that a petition for a writ of mandamus is presently pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second

Circuit, and therefore requests that the Court:

1. Stay all proceedings,
2. Strike the unlawful May 8 and May 13 deadlines,
and

3. Acknowledge that
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger’s continued conduct exceeds his lawful authority, violating well-established principles of jurisdiction and judicial ethics.

4. The fact that the Clerk
Wolfe is obstructing justice is a fact for this for to proceed and it only strengthens my claim of her criminal conduct

I. THE DISTRICT COURT IS DIVESTED OF JURISDICTION DURING THE PENDENCY OF
APPELLATE REVIEW

It is long-settled law that once a notice of appeal or a mandamus petition is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over the issues presented:

“The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”
— Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982). “Once a notice of appeal is filed, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal.”

— United States v. Rodgers, 101 F.3d 247, 251 (2d Cir. 1996). Because Plaintiff has now placed the relevant subject matter under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals via a mandamus petition, the district court is without authority to proceed or enforce any deadlines that touch on those issues.

II. JUDGE
LEHRBURGER’S
CONTINUED
INVOLVEMENT CONSTITUTES AN UNLAWFUL AND POSSIBLY CRIMINAL INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate Judge
Lehrburger’s attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff’s allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights.

Moreover, this Court’s prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines—including May 8 and May 13—are without lawful basis.

Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes such as:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 (conspiracy against rights),

- 18 U.S.C. § 242 (deprivation of rights under color of law),

- 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (witness or litigant intimidation).

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Formally stay all proceedings in this matter,

- Strike the May 8, 2025 and May 13, 2025 deadlines as unlawful,

- Reiterate that no further actions shall be taken by the Magistrate Judge or any officer of the Court until the appellate court has ruled on Plaintiff's pending writ of mandamus.

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio CelliI. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:

- Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
- Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
- Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.

2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:

- PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
- Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
- As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
- Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees

- Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order○ There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.<sup>3</sup>

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID
RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.
- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist.

Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio CelliI. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:

- Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
- Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
- Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.

2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:

- PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
- Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
- As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
- Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees

- Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order○ There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.<sup>3</sup>

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID
RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.
- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist.

Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio CelliI. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:

- o Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
- o Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
- o Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.

2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:

- o PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
- o Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
- o As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
- o Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
- o Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
- o Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.

- o Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order.
- o There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints.

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:

- o Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
- o Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
- o Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
- o Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- o Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- o Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- o Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- o Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - o The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - o The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - o The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT ARISING FROM JUDICIAL BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION

---

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.
- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly

with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio CelliI. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:

- o Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
- o Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
- o Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.

2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:

- o PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
- o Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
- o As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
- o Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
- o Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
- o Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.

- o Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order.
- o There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints.

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:

- o Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
- o Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
- o Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
- o Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- o Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- o Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- o Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- o Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - o The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - o The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - o The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT ARISING FROM JUDICIAL BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION

---

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.
- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly

with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio CelliI. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:

- o Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
- o Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
- o Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.

2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:

- o PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
- o Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
- o As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
- o Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
- o Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
- o Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.

- o Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order.
- o There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints.

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:

- o Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
- o Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
- o Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
- o Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- o Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- o Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- o Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- o Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - o The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - o The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - o The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT ARISING FROM JUDICIAL BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION

---

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.
- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

Hon. Callagher,

I will file a cross complaint against the plaintiffs, as my employer admitted to using my mental health issues, acknowledge of how and why Randi placed my HIV on a pubic blog, obtained and provided the NY POST my psy reports, using my rape to shame me, and took moeny with my employer's full knowledge as retaliation for Vinny, who she deemed like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly

with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

I hope Your Honor will have or has had a great weekend--whenever you read this

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio CelliI. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:

- Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
- PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp’s Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees

- Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer’s order○ There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer’s voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:

- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
- Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
- Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
- Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff’s rights.

4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:

- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
- Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
- Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
- Impairment of the complainant’s liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE VOID
RULINGS, ENFORCE PRIOR FEDERAL ORDERS, AND SANCTION JUDICIAL

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum of law is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to:

- (1) Vacate the void decisions issued by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger and Judge Rearden,
- (2) Enforce the prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer concerning Plaintiff's employment status, and
- (3) Sanction judicial officers and actors, including Clerk Wolfe, for participating in or failing to remedy a pattern of bribery, obstruction of justice, and constitutional deprivation that directly injured Plaintiff's rights to employment, medical access, and redress.
- (4) Provide a class to Judge Lehrburger that Engelmayer's order and the Mandamus to have the AUSA explain how it affected my employment—wages, pension, and other matters or how the illegal detentions based on wages owed to me and affected pension ans so

Vexatious is to annoy without reason—I don't have access to my drug plan and no one has helped me in 6 years in these matters

Frivolous is no basis in law

I am writing an entire memo of law on bribery for favorable ruling that distorts and ignore facts, like what is Lehrburger is doing for Randi Weingarten

This motion addresses judicial misconduct involving cash bribes paid by Randi Weingarten in exchange for favorable rulings, suppression of evidence, and dismissal of well-pleaded claims in direct violation of the Due Process Clause, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and criminal statutes including 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 371, and 201(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Plaintiff alleges that Randi Weingarten, President of the AFT, engaged in a scheme of bribery and retaliation, using her political access to Judges Lehrburger, Rearden, and Engelmayer—each with known affiliations or appointments supported by Senator Chuck Schumer.

Judge Lehrburger failed to enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior ruling, allowing the UFT and NYC DOE to retaliate against Plaintiff for protected conduct, including his complaints about workplace discrimination and submission of evidence exposing misconduct.

Judge Rearden adopted portions of Plaintiff's complaint verbatim in her order but failed to apply controlling case law to the very facts she cited, ignoring precedents that would have sustained the claims under Rule 12(b)(6). This failure to adjudicate properly indicates bias or improper influence.

Judge Engelmayer's refusal to hold a hearing on probation violations—during which Plaintiff's employment benefits and access to federal courts were obstructed—further deprived Plaintiff of due process. Clerk Wolfe's role in misdating filings and concealing misconduct by Plaintiff's own attorneys exacerbated this harm.

Additionally, AUSA offices in EDNY possess exculpatory evidence that was never presented, despite multiple requests for intervention. This raises severe questions under Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

ARGUMENT

I. Decisions Procured Through Bribery Are Void Under Law and Must Be Vacated

A judgment obtained through bribery is not merely voidable, it is void ab initio. See Root Refining Co. v. Universal Oil Products Co., 169 F.2d 514, 534 (3d Cir. 1948). Where a judicial officer receives payment or benefit in exchange for a ruling, due process is not merely undermined—it is obliterated. See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927) (judge disqualified where personal interest present); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009) (extreme facts of bias violate due process).

Plaintiff's allegations that Judge Lehrburger and Rearden received financial influence—directly or indirectly—to favor Randi Weingarten, and that Judge Engelmayer refused enforcement of his own order to shield the same actor, warrant vacatur of those decisions under Rule 60(d)(3), FRCP, and equitable principles.

II. Failure to Apply Cited Facts to Cited Case Law Is Judicial Misconduct and Structural Error

Judge Rearden's order quoted facts from Plaintiff's complaint but failed to apply relevant legal standards to those very facts. The failure to address whether those facts supported claims under Twombly or Iqbal or violated civil rights statutes constitutes reversible error and judicial abandonment of duty. See Rosen v. Thornburgh, 928 F.2d 528 (2d Cir. 1991); Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635 (1980).

When a court deliberately misapplies law to fact, especially where political or financial interference is evident, it violates the impartiality mandate under Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47 (1975).

III. Obstruction of Court Access and Retaliatory Motives Violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments

The refusal by these judges to allow Plaintiff to present evidence of retaliation, especially involving “a penis picture” allegedly cited by the employer as pretext, while suppressing admissions of retaliation, violates Plaintiff's First Amendment right to petition and Fourteenth Amendment right to fair process. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977); Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

Moreover, the employer's acknowledgment of adverse action tied to protected conduct (complaints or images inappropriately used as pretext) supports claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and warrants factual review under Mt. Healthy City Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. v. Doyle, 429 U.S. 274 (1977).

IV. Judicial Officers' Involvement in Suppression of Evidence and Political Favoritism Implicates Conspiratorial Conduct Under § 1985(3)

A judge's deliberate concealment of politically sensitive or personally damaging evidence in collaboration with opposing counsel or prosecutors may constitute a conspiracy to violate civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), particularly when driven by animus or protection of a politically connected party. See Griffin v. Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88 (1971); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (judges can be liable if acting in conspiracy with private parties).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

1. Vacate the rulings of Judge Rearden and Magistrate Judge Lehrburger as void under Rule 60(d)(3) and due to violations of constitutional integrity;
2. Enforce Judge Engelmayer's order regarding Plaintiff's employment status and medical rights;
3. Compel production of withheld evidence from the EDNY and Plaintiff's former counsel regarding the conspiracy;
4. Refer the matter for judicial discipline and criminal investigation regarding alleged bribery and obstruction;
5. Restore Plaintiff's access to employment benefits and life-sustaining HIV medication.

like a brother

it is an ethics violation for senator to get involved directly and indirectly with employment based on a protected class, 18 USC 246--listed in the Senate Ethics Committee manual

Schumer's judges and Gillibrand's judge criminal supported Randi Weingarten's actions and concealed it

Plaintiffs in this matter cannot SEEK federal money and not be in compliance, as the AFT of Maryland cannot ignore Randi's conduct because there is a way to remove her, besides NYS 3020a for criminal conduct or NYC's charter CLEARLY written statements of thier obligations under the charter, as it relates to Monell

The lawyers is case must address Randi's criminal conduct and must refuse to represent her and the AFT, which the 2d Cir has covered up for her but acknowledged by Judge Weir of Eastern Kentucky of my criminal complaint and Clerk Wolfe prevented AUSAs. and NYC DAs from testifying because the 3020a DOES NOT require a criminal conviction .

I will place a motion under FRCP if the lawyers do not address the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and of the AFT

Prior to deciding issues originally filed, defunded for non compliance must come first and I will place 28 USC 2403 and I will send a request to DOE, House Committee and whomever is the Comp--as the House will only consider if this person deems so

The house is listed

ORDER denying 88 Motion to Vacate; denying 92 Letter Motion to Stay; denying 92 Motion to Strike.. This order addresses several applications made by Plaintiff. 1. The application at Dkt. 66 is addressed to Judge Cronan and will be addressed by him in due course to the extent the motion may be considered objections to an order of the undersigned. 2. Plaintiff's "motion to vacate unauthorized judicial actions and complaint of judicial misconduct" at Dkt. 88 is addressed to Judge Rearden and the Chief Judge. Neither of those judges is assigned to the case. Additionally, the supporting memorandum of law at Dkt. 89 (see also Dkt. 91) argues generally for recusal of "the assigned judge(s)" and referral for investigation of misconduct based on unspecified political activity. Elsewhere, Plaintiff has expressed concern about various judges alleged political affiliations with Senators Schumer and Gillibrand. Those Senators either sponsored and/or voted to confirm various judges pursuant to lawful procedures. Any suggestion of political influence is frivolous. Accordingly, the motion is DENIED. 3. Plaintiff's "motion to stay and strike unlawful deadlines due to pending mandamus petition" at Dkt. 92 seeks to stay the dates this Court set in connection with the order to show cause issued at Dkt. 87. Those dates are May 8, 2025 (written submission, if any) and May 13, 2025 (hearing at court). Plaintiff argues that the deadlines are "unlawful" because Plaintiff has filed a mandamus petition divesting this Court of jurisdiction. The only application for mandamus relief on the docket is at Dkts. 53 and 62, which seek relief as to matters involving his criminal conviction in the Eastern District of New York. where my motions does it state relief from conviction That mandamus application, directed to Judge Cronan and this the undersigned, has no relevance to the orders issued by this Court in this matter and, in any event, is frivolous. A letter from Plaintiff dated February 24, 2025 at Dkt. 55 states that Plaintiff plans to file a petition in the Second Circuit seeking my "recusal under mandamus," and asks that I not make any ruling until the Second Circuit acts on the petition. There is nothing on the docket indicating that any such mandamus petition has been filed with the Second Circuit. Plaintiff did file a motion for recusal at Dkt. 63, which was denied by Dkt. 64. Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion to stay and strike is DENIED, and the order to show cause, including the dates set forth therein, remains operative. Failure to appear for the show cause hearing may result in dismissal of Plaintiff's complaint with prejudice for that reason alone. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motions at Dkts. 88 and 92. SO ORDERED. Copies transmitted this date to all counsel of record. The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff and note service on the docket. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 4/24/2025) (mml) (Entered: 04/24/2025)

Judge Lehrburger, besides committing a crime of not enforcing Engelmayer's order, is engaging in wage and pension wages, as she was bribed by the voting block and he is a fag hater

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order

- There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints
3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
- Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
- Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;

- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;
- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.

ORDER denying 88 Motion to Vacate; denying 92 Letter Motion to Stay; denying 92 Motion to Strike.. This order addresses several applications made by Plaintiff. 1. The application at Dkt. 66 is addressed to Judge Cronan and will be addressed by him in due course to the extent the motion may be considered objections to an order of the undersigned. 2. Plaintiff's "motion to vacate unauthorized judicial actions and complaint of judicial misconduct" at Dkt. 88 is addressed to Judge Rearden and the Chief Judge. Neither of those judges is assigned to the case. Additionally, the supporting memorandum of law at Dkt. 89 (see also Dkt. 91) argues generally for recusal of "the assigned judge(s)" and referral for investigation of misconduct based on unspecified political activity. Elsewhere, Plaintiff has expressed concern about various judges alleged political affiliations with Senators Schumer and Gillibrand. Those Senators either sponsored and/or voted to confirm various judges pursuant to lawful procedures. Any suggestion of political influence is frivolous. Accordingly, the motion is DENIED. 3. Plaintiff's "motion to stay and strike unlawful deadlines due to pending mandamus petition" at Dkt. 92 seeks to stay the dates this Court set in connection with the order to show cause issued at Dkt. 87. Those dates are May 8, 2025 (written submission, if any) and May 13, 2025 (hearing at court). Plaintiff argues that the deadlines are "unlawful" because Plaintiff has filed a mandamus petition divesting this Court of jurisdiction. The only application for mandamus relief on the docket is at Dkts. 53 and 62, which seek relief as to matters involving his criminal conviction in the Eastern District of New York. where my motions does it state relief from conviction That mandamus application, directed to Judge Cronan and this the undersigned, has no relevance to the orders issued by this Court in this matter and, in any event, is frivolous. A letter from Plaintiff dated February 24, 2025 at Dkt. 55 states that Plaintiff plans to file a petition in the Second Circuit seeking my "recusal under mandamus," and asks that I not make any ruling until the Second Circuit acts on the petition. There is nothing on the docket indicating that any such mandamus petition has been filed with the Second Circuit. Plaintiff did file a motion for recusal at Dkt. 63, which was denied by Dkt. 64. Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion to stay and strike is DENIED, and the order to show cause, including the dates set forth therein, remains operative. Failure to appear for the show cause hearing may result in dismissal of Plaintiff's complaint with prejudice for that reason alone. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motions at Dkts. 88 and 92. SO ORDERED. Copies transmitted this date to all counsel of record. The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff and note service on the docket. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Robert W. Lehrburger on 4/24/2025) (mml) (Entered: 04/24/2025)

Judge Lehrburger, besides committing a crime of not enforcing Engelmayer's order, is engaging in wage and pension wages, as she was bribed by the voting block and he is a fag hater

Dear Judge Cronan and Chief Judge Livingston

COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Against: Judge Lehrburger

Compliant of Lawyer Misconduct and Sanction rule 11 against Mr. Brown and Ms. Goode of Law Dept are called for

Filed By: Lucio Celli

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint is submitted under 28 U.S.C. § 351 against a federal judge who has knowingly aided, concealed, or facilitated criminal misconduct by one or more attorneys and/or organized groups (e.g. union representatives or politically affiliated actors), to the detriment of the complainant's civil rights, liberty interests, and due process guarantees. As Mr. Brown has person and direct knowledge of UFT's and Randi Weingarten wage and pension theft scheme, which evidence from PERB and audios made during PERB.

The judge's conduct implicates not only ethical violations under the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, but also potential criminal obstruction under 18 U.S.C. § 1505, § 1512, and § 4 (misprision of felony).

II. BACKGROUND FACTS

1. [Insert Judge's Name] has presided over proceedings involving [Attorney(s)/Group name, e.g., "Randi Weingarten," "AUSA Santana," "UFT legal counsel"] who are accused of:
  - Submitting fraudulent statements or fabricated evidence,
  - Engaging in retaliation against a whistleblower or civil rights complainant,
  - Obstructing enforcement of prior lawful orders or settlement agreements.
2. The judge has been made aware of the misconduct through filings, transcripts, and documentary evidence, including:
  - PERB brief by Mr. Brown and Judge Engelmayer's order, which was politically influenced
  - Mr. Brown's behavior warrants sanctions for knowingly lying and supporting the UFT's wage and pension thief
  - As the emails between NYC, the judges, UFT and myself prove that the city is failing to adhere to the charter, as they cannot help anyone with a crime and MUST, MUST inform the court of such action
  - Corp Counsel must remedy any civil rights violation, not sanctioned by the city, and must, as all agents—NYC Comp's Office, ensure wages are provided to their employees
  - Sanctions against the City are called for under rule 11, Mr. Brown
  - Audio recordings can be transcript and certified to the court showing collusion between counsel and adverse actors.
  - Judge Lehrburger knowingly and willingly committing crimes for Randi Weingarten so that she will not be terminated by not enforcing the Engelmayer's order
  - There are numerous obstruction laws that Judge Lehrburger is breaking for Randi Weingarten, like 18 USC § 1509 and then, there is the issue of Schumer's voting block that falls squarely under the Synder case that I mentioned in her complaints

3. Despite this knowledge, the judge has taken steps that actively aid the wrongdoers, including but not limited to:
  - Striking motions seeking redress or sanctions, without addressing the underlying allegations;
  - Suppressing evidence submitted to expose the misconduct;
  - Issuing rulings favorable to the implicated party, despite conflicts or violations of law;
  - Refusing to enforce prior orders issued by another judge that supported Plaintiff's rights.
4. This facilitation of misconduct has resulted in:
  - Obstruction of civil rights enforcement (e.g., denial of access to courts);
  - Ongoing denial of wages, benefits, and medical care;
  - Physical endangerment, particularly in cases involving retaliation by deprivation of HIV treatment;
  - Impairment of the complainant's liberty interest, in violation of Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

III. LEGAL STANDARDS VIOLATED

1.

Judicial Ethics

- Canon 1: Fails to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary;
- Canon 2: Fails to avoid impropriety or appearance thereof;
- Canon 3(B)(5): Fails to perform duties impartially and competently.

2.

Federal Statutes

- 18 U.S.C. § 4: Misprision of felony – knowingly concealing the commission of a felony;
- 18 U.S.C. § 1505: Obstruction of proceedings before departments or agencies;

18 U.S.C. § 1512(b): Witness tampering and obstruction;

- 18 U.S.C. § 242: Deprivation of rights under color of law.

3.

Due Process & Civil Rights

- Caperton v. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Judicial bias due to political entanglement requires recusal.
- In re Complaints of Judicial Misconduct, 751 F.3d 611: Continued legal error after notice constitutes misconduct.
- Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972): Prosecution and courts must disclose evidence of witness misconduct or fraud.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Complainant respectfully seeks:

1. That the Chief Judge refer this complaint for formal investigation under 28 U.S.C. § 353;
2. That all decisions issued by the subject judge in favor of the implicated party be reviewed for bias, fraud, or improper influence;
3. That this Court determine whether recusal was required but improperly denied, in violation of 28 U.S.C. § 455(a)–(b);
4. That the record be preserved and transmitted to:
  - The Judicial Council of the Circuit;
  - The Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - The Senate and House Judiciary Committees, if political influence is substantiated.

V. CONCLUSION

Judicial officers are entrusted with neutrality, fairness, and fidelity to the rule of law. When a judge knowingly shelters misconduct by an attorney or political actor—especially one engaged in fraudulent or retaliatory conduct—the judge undermines the very foundation of constitutional justice. The conduct detailed herein reflects not mere legal error but intentional misuse of judicial authority to protect misconduct, warranting immediate review and accountability.
